Copyright Office, 1943 Donald Judd Writings Donald Judd, 2016-11-22 With hundreds of pages of new and previously unpublished essays notes and letters Donald Judd Writings is the most comprehensive collection of the artist's writings assembled to date This timely publication includes Judd's best known essays as well as little known texts previously published in limited editions Moreover this new collection also includes unpublished college essays and hundreds of never before seen notes a critical but unknown part of Judd's writing practice Judd's earliest published writing consisting largely of art reviews for hire defined the terms of art criticism in the 1960s but his essays as an undergraduate at Columbia University in New York published here for the first time contain the seeds of his later writing and allow readers to trace the development of his critical style The writings that followed Judd's early reviews are no less significant art historically but have been relegated to smaller publications and have remained largely unavailable until now The largest addition of newly available material is Judd's unpublished notes transcribed from his handwritten accounts of and reactions to subjects ranging from the politics of his time to the literary texts he admired most In these intimate reflections we see Judd's thinking at his least mediated a mind continuing to grapple with questions of its moment thinking them through changing positions and demonstrating the intensity of thought that continues to make Judd such a formidable presence in contemporary visual art Edited by the artist's son Judd Foundation curator and co president Flavin Judd and Judd Foundation archivist Caitlin Murray this volume finally provides readers with the full extent of Donald Judd's influence on contemporary art, art history and art criticism. New York Magazine, 1986-06-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country.
