Birkenstein, Robert C. Hauhart, 2021-03-10 In Connections and Influence in the Russian and American Short Story editors Robert C Hauhart and Jeff Birkenstein have assembled a collection of eighteen original essays written by literary critics from around the globe Collectively these critics argue that the reciprocal influence between Russian and American writers is integral to the development of the short story in each country as well as vital to the global status the contemporary short story has attained This collection provides original analyses of both well known Russian and American stories as well as some that might be more unfamiliar Each essay is purposely crafted to display an appreciation of the techniques subject matter themes and approaches that both Russian and American short story writers explored across borders and time Stories by Gogol Dostoevsky Turgenev Chekhov and Krzhizhanovsky as well as short stories by Washington Irving Faulkner Langston Hughes Richard Wright Ursula Le Guin Raymond Carver and Joyce Carol Oates populate this essential multivalent collection Perhaps more important now than at any time since the end of the Cold War these essays will remind readers how much Russian and American culture share as well as the extent to which their respective literatures are deeply intertwined

Blyss in Heaven, the Letters Bill Vyers, 2009-08-24 I started writing letters to my daughter the day she died This was my way of coping with a cruel depression This is actually two books in one The second part is the letters from jail I speak and ask question of my daughter as if she was sitting across the table from me The letters show how God stepped in and lent His tender mercies to someone asking what to do after the death of a child Blyss in Heaven Ministries was amazingly born in jail proving God is always in control even though all seems lost
