Red Chips And The Globalization Of Chinas Enterprises:

Red Chips and the Globalisation of China's Enterprises Charles de Trenck,1998 Red Chips analyses leading Chinese companies and their operating environment in the 1990s In China it is government organisations that form corporate structures These state backed companies often follow a trail that leads back to foreign equity markets particularly Hong Kong s stock exchange The examination of these companies in this book is a first in the English language Red Chips bridges the standard press and scholastic coverage providing both the context of China s reforms and in depth analysis of several of China s leading companies Corporate Governance and China's H-share Market Alice De Jonge,2008-01-01 Using detailed case studies of the first nine mainland Chinese companies to be listed on the Hong Kong stock exchange 1993 94 Alice de Jonge examines the evolution of corporate governance law and culture in China s H share market A story emerges not of tensions between ideas of corporate governance from two different legal systems Hong Kong vs mainland Chinese nor about legal convergence as China adopts concepts from Anglo American jurisdictions Rather it is a story of individual firms being pragmatic in mediating the different agendas of state agencies that own or control them Corporate Governance and China s H Share Market looks at corporate governance in a cross border context is unique in providing a detailed understanding of China s H share market reveals why a beer company was the first ever Chinese firm to be listed overseas This fascinating work will appeal to postgraduate students and scholars of corporate governance Asian law and legal systems and Asian business as well as Chinese scholars more generally Professionals such as law practitioners working in Chinese law will also find the book of interest Documentary annex, report to Congress of the U.S.-China Security Review Commission U.S.-China Security Review Commission,2002 Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Security Review Commission U.S.-China Security Review Commission,2002 Facets of Globalization Shahid Yusuf,Simon J. Evenett,Weiping Wu,2001-01-01 Since 1985 national economies have become increasingly integrated into a global network At the same time both population and production in developing countries are becoming concentrated in urban regions This in turn has generated demands for more local autonomy shifting more decision making to sub national levels Globalization is expected to continue leading to greater openness and international mobility of capital and people There are few reasons to believe that these trends will abate if anything they are likely to intensify the focus on cities and sharpen competition among these for international and local resources This volume underscores the transformative role of globalization and urbanization and shows the interplay between the two forces The Globalization of Business Firms from Emerging Economies Henry Wai-Chung Yeung,1999 Globalization and State Transformation in China Yongnian Zheng,2004 As China develops its economy the author argues it will be held back by its refusal to import democratic values Hong Kong's Global Financial Centre and China's Development Yan-leung Cheung,Yuk-shing Cheng,Chi-keung Woo,2016-12-08 This book provides an overview of Hong Kong s role as an international financial centre focusing especially on how Hong Kong has contributed significantly and continues to contribute significantly to China's economic development. It considers the importance of Hong Kong's stock market in raising finance for Chinese companies, explores the potential of Hong Kong as an offshore financial centre and discusses recent regulatory reforms. It concludes by assessing the prospects for Hong Kong's continuing success as a global financial centre and puts forward recommendations for policies which would help secure continuing success.

Playing to the World's Biggest Audience Michael Curtin, 2007-08-02 Delineates the globalizing pressures and opportunities that have dramatically transformed the terrain of Chinese film and television including the end of the cold war, the rise of the World Trade Organization and the escalation of democracy movements. This book examines the prospect of a global Chinese audience.

Globalization, Regionalization and Cross-Border Regions M. Perkmann, N. Sum, 2002-07-12 Cross border regions are newly emerging social spaces stretching across national borders. Globalization makes national borders more permeable and leads to a rearrangement of economic and political interactions. This is particularly pronounced within supra regional blocs featuring specific internal border regimes. The ensuing opportunities are increasingly seized to create border spanning discourses and institutions. This is illustrated in the book by a range of experts analyzing cross border regions in Europe, America, East Asia and Africa.
