Red Grooms. New York Stories, 1995 Red Grooms Red Grooms, David Shapiro, 1995 October 26 November 25 1995

Red Grooms and the Heroism of Modern Life Red Grooms, Joyce Henri Robinson, 1998-01-01 Red Grooms is a cross between Marcel Duchamp and P T Barnum Working in a brash freewheeling style Grooms has explored the raucous spectacle of life around him since his career began in the 1950s This catalogue which accompanied an exhibition of the same name at the Palmer Museum of Art brings together forty of his works to demonstrate that even his most whimsical creations have serious implications Many of the mixed media constructions in Red Grooms and the Heroism of Modern Life reflect upon America's love affair with sports business and celebrity The mixture of parody and homage in Grooms's portraits of such stars as Pablo Picasso and Fats Domino charges all his depictions of American popular culture from bulky football players and haggard shoppers to a brightly colored Ferris wheel In her essay for this catalogue Joyce Henri Robinson contends that Grooms should be considered a contemporary counterpart to Charles Baudelaire's Parisian flaneur Much like this famed character she observes Grooms approaches the world around him as a spectacle filled with novel forms of heroism In this regard the key work in the catalogue is an installation centered upon a full scale version of a New York City bus Grooms's Bus tempers revelation of the gritty realities of urban life with humor and flashes of poetry New York Magazine, 1995-11-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Red Grooms, New Works Marlborough Gallery, 1999 April 21 May 22 1999 Red Grooms Red Grooms, 2007 September 25 October 27 2007 New York Magazine, 1995-12-18 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Red Grooms Bartholomew F. Bland, 2008 Red Grooms's dazzling installation was created as a working gift shop for the Hudson River Museum in 1979 After extensive conservation this beloved Westchester landmark has been reinstalled in its own gallery The Bookstore incorporates many of the themes that run through Grooms's best work the marriage of art and commerce the clash of high and low colorful New York characters and an inviting three dimensional space that envelops and transports the viewer The Bookstore deftly joins two favorite haunts of New York City booklover the lively oldest secondhand bookshop in NYC the Isaac Mendoza Book Company and the Pierpont Morgan Library into a work of art In terms of materials The Bookstore was one of a limited number of pieces in which Grooms incorporated vinyl figures

The figures are painted from the inside a technique inspired by medieval glass painting techniques and then are stuffed and sewn. Tens of thousands of visitors passed through The Bookstore and embraced by its environment it inevitably began to suffer ravages caused by its popularity. Plans were developed to restore the work and Grooms enthusiastically approved the conservation efforts and changes which include altering the position of the two entrances to fit new gallery space, the creation of a central island that incorporated the original vinyl patrons and the design of a painted floor. Grooms remains cautious of making too many changes to a piece that reflects a vision of New York in the 1970s already passing into history. An artist can overwork a thing you can ruin the delicacy of a past moment very easily. I think it's better to keep it like it was primitive in that way.

The Human Comedy Isabelle Dervaux, 2002 The Eunice and Hal David Collection of Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century Works on Paper Cynthia Burlingham, 2003
