Right Men Wrong Men Knowing The Difference:

The Red Heart James Alexander Thom, 2010-08-18 The Slocum family of Northeastern Pennsylvania are the best of the white settlers peace loving Quakers who believe that the Indians hold the Light of God inside It is from this good hearted family that Frances is abducted during the Revolutionary war As the child s terror subsides she is slowly drawn into the sacred work and beliefs of her adoptive mother and of all the women of these Eastern tribes Frances becomes Maconakwa the Little Bear Woman of the Miami Indians Then long after the Indians are beaten and their last hope Tecumseh is killed the Slocums hear word of their long lost daughter and head out to Indiana to meet their beloved Frances But for Maconakwa it is a moment of truth the test of whether her heart is truly a red one Man At The Cross Rev. Bagan Tewa, 2012-08-27 MAN AT THE CROSS seeks simply to awaken the feminine intuitive side of the human race which seems to be dormant in our male dominated society because it comes to the conclusion that if we are to learn lessons from the past in order to affect much needed change looking at the structure of ancient societies that were peaceful and in harmony with God and nature it was the woman who was at the head And if she was not at the head she had equal power in these societies This book does this through an honest soul searching approach to looking at our past history It is prophetic profound and insightful in its reach from the United States Europe the Caribbean and everywhere else in between The reader is sure to be engaged as the author moves naturally to and from the voice of a layman to prophetic wisdom as Reverend speaking here from this pulpit which compels all to listen and pay attention Without Answers Vol 8 Rush Rhees, 2014-06-23 This is Volume VIII of none in a studies in Ethics and the Philosophy of Religion Originally published in 1969 and holds a collection of papers on talks to first year students not reading philosophy science and questioning and discussions on social engineering politics and science as well as questions like where does the world come from Unfinished Dialogue Isaiah Berlin, 2010-07-30 This volume is the fruit of nearly fifteen years of discussion in person and by letter between world famous British philosopher Isaiah Berlin 1909 1997 and Dr Beata Polanowska Sygulska of the Jagiellonian University in Cracow Poland Berlin always felt a special affinity for scholars from Eastern Europe and the unique chemistry between him and this younger enthusiast for his ideas yielded a remarkable body of material most of it hitherto unpublished Divided into four sections the book begins with a selection from the correspondence between Berlin and Polanowska Sygulska dating from 1983 to 1997 These letters are published here in their entirety for the first time The second section comprises two interviews Berlin gave in 1991 for Polish periodicals Next come edited transcripts of a number of recorded conversations that took place between 1986 and 1995 In one conversation Berlin tellingly recalls his childhood and youth In other exchanges the famous conversationalist is pressed to be more precise about some of his most contested views particularly his concepts of liberty and value pluralism and to give his response to criticism of these ideas by a wide range of authors In one of his last letters to Dr Polanowska Sygulska Berlin stated I have never expressed myself so clearly before I believe The book concludes with a collection of articles on Berlin s thought by Dr

Polanowska Sygulska stemming from her long standing immersion in his work Berlin himself thoroughly discussed three of these with the author and approved their publication Complete with a foreword by Henry Hardy Berlin's editor and collaborator of thirty years and now one of his literary trustees this fascinating collection of letters conversations and articles sheds considerable light on Berlin's thinking clarifying some of the central themes of his philosophy
