One Nation Under Therapy Christina Hoff Sommers, Sally Satel, 2025-08-22 Americans have traditionally placed great value on self reliance and fortitude In recent decades however we have seen the rise of a therapeutic ethic that views Americans as emotionally underdeveloped psychically frail and requiring the ministrations of mental health professionals to cope with life s vicissitudes Being in touch with one s feelings and freely expressing them have become paramount personal virtues Today with a book for every ailment a counselor for every crisis a lawsuit for every grievance and a TV show for every conceivable problem we are at risk of degrading our native ability to cope with life s challenges Drawing on established science and common sense Christina Hoff Sommers and Dr Sally Satel reveal how therapism and the burgeoning trauma industry have come to pervade our lives Help is offered everywhere under the presumption that we need it in children s classrooms the workplace churches courtrooms the media the military But with all the help comes a host of troubling consequences including The myth of stressed out homework burdened hypercompetitive and depressed or suicidal schoolchildren in need of therapy and medication The loss of moral bearings in our approach to lying crime addiction and other foibles and vices The unasked for grief counselors who descend on bereaved families schools and communities following a tragedy offering dubious advice while billing plenty of money The expansion of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder from an affliction of war veterans to nearly everyone who has experienced a setback Intelligent provocative and wryly amusing One Nation Under Therapy demonstrates that talking about problems is no substitute for confronting them

Life as We Know It (Can Be) Bill Weir, 2024-04-16 Award winning journalist and CNN chief climate correspondent Bill Weir draws on his years of immersive travel and reporting to share the best ideas and stories of hope and positivity from the people and communities around the world who are thriving in the wake of climate change and what we can learn from them to build a more promising future While reporting from every state and every continent and filming his acclaimed CNN Original Series The Wonder List Bill Weir has spent decades telling the stories of unique people places cultures and creatures on the brink of change As the first Chief Climate Correspondent in network news he's immersed in the latest science and breakthroughs on the topic while often on the frontlines of disasters natural and manmade In 2020 Bill began distilling these experiences into a series of Earth Day letters for his then newborn son to read in 2050 to help him better understand the world he will have grown up in and be better prepared to embrace the future Bill's work and his letters were the inspiration for Life As We Know It Can Be which confronts the worry and wonder of climate change with messages and examples of hope for all of us on how a better future can still be written Highlighting groundbreaking innovation in fields of clean energy food and water sources housing and building materials and more and touching on how happiness resilience and health and wellness factor into the topic of climate change Bill's stories take readers on a global journey from one community in Florida that took on a hurricane and never lost power to the Antarctic Peninsula where one species of penguin is showing us the key to survival to the nuclear fusion labs where scientists are trying to build a star in a box In these pages we join a search for ancient wisdom and new ideas Life As We Know It Can Be is a celebration of the wonders of our planet a meditation on the human wants and needs that drive it out of balance and an inspiration for communities to galvanize around nature and each other as the very best way to best prepare and plan for what's next
