and Fall of Fu Ren University, Beijing John Shujie Chen, 2004 Eurasian Encounters Carolien Stolte, Yoshiyuki Kikuchi, 2025-10-01 The essays in this volume explore crucial intellectual and cultural exchanges between Asia and Europe in the first half of the twentieth century Examining the increased mobility of people and information scientific advances global crises and the unravelling of empires Eurasian Encounters demonstrates that this time period saw an unprecedented increase in a transnational flow of politically and socially influential ideas Together the contributors show how the two ends of Eurasia interacted in artistic academic and religious spheres using new international and cosmopolitan approaches

Catholic Higher Education in China John Shujie Chen, 2003 Perspectives on the History of Higher Education Roger L. Geiger, 2017-07-05 The early twentieth century witnessed the rise of middle class mass periodicals that while offering readers congenial material also conveyed new depictions of manliness liberal education and the image of business leaders Should Your Boy Go to College asked one magazine story and for over two decades these middle class magazines answered in numerous permutations with a collective yes In the course of interpreting these themes they reshaped the vision of a college education and created the ideal of a college educated businessman Volume 24 of the Perspectives on the History of Higher Education 2005 provides historical studies touching on contemporary concerns gender high ability students academic freedom and in the case of the Barnes Foundation the authority of donor intent Daniel Clark discusses the nuanced changes that occurred to the image of college at the turn of the century Michael David Cohen offers an important corrective to stereotypes about gender relations in nineteenth century coeducational colleges Jane Robbins traces how the young National Research Council embraced the cause of how to identify and encourage superior students as a vehicle for incorporating wartime advances in psychological testing Susan R Richardson considers the long Texas tradition of political interference in university affairs Finally Edward Epstein and Marybeth Gasman shed historical light on the recent controversy surrounding the Barnes Foundation The volume also contains brief descriptions of twenty recent doctoral dissertations in the history of higher education This serial publication will be of interest to historians sociologists and of course educational policymakers Confessions of a Chinese Heroine Teresa Ying Mulan, 2021-08-26 The memoirs of Sister Ying Mulan describe her experiences as a Chinese Christian living in a turbulent era marked by the Communist takeover the Cultural Revolution and many momentous political reforms Born into a family of politically active Catholics Ying Mulan was eventually imprisoned in Shanghai and later sent to serve in labor camps for over twenty years While living through such difficult circumstances Ying Mulan derived strength from her faith At the age of 60 she became a religious sister and twenty five years later she decided to write her autobiography In this book Francis Morgan offers the first English translation of Sr

Ying's memoirs providing explanatory notes based on historical research and a series of extensive interviews with Sr Ying As she recounts the trials that she and others endured Sr Ying speaks with a remarkable tone of gratitude giving thanks to God for the tests that steeled her character tempered her pride and increased her compassion While her work stands out as a modern spiritual autobiography it also deserves recognition as a political text Sr Ying's memoirs offer valuable and rare insights into the realities of religious life in China the hidden world of labor camps and prisons and the extremes of Cultural Revolution

Identity and Internationalization in Catholic Universities Hans de Wit, Andrés Bernasconi, Visnja Car, Fiona Hunter, Michael James, Daniela Véliz, 2018-08-02 Identity and Internationalization in Catholic Universities explores the relationship between Catholic identity mission and internationalization in Catholic universities of different types and located in different contexts Internationalization is a key concern for universities working to achieve their goals in different regions of the world but without neglecting their identity There are many universities that consider themselves related to the Roman Catholic faith and many other universities with Christian affiliations It is well known that Catholic universities have unique missions such as the formation of individuals inspired by a religious conviction to serve society and the church That is why it is imperative to have empirical knowledge to help develop practical and effective policies on central themes such as internationalization a fundamental part of many universities developmental strategies while paying special attention to each university's specific context This book includes sixteen case studies from Latin America the United States the Asia Pacific and Europe and also includes chapters on regional perspectives on Catholic higher education as well as more specifically Jesuit higher education the global network of La Salle universities and internationalization in the United States Latin America the Asia Pacific region and Europe

Higher Education, State and Society Lili Yang, 2022-09-08 In this monograph Lili Yang compares core ideas about the state society and higher education in two major world traditions She explores the broad cultural and philosophical ideas underlying the public good of higher education in the two traditions reveals their different social imaginaries and works through five areas where higher education intersects with the individual society the state and the world intersections understood in contrasting ways in each tradition The five key themes are individual student development in higher education equity in higher education academic freedom and university autonomy the resources and outcomes of higher education and cross border higher education activities and higher education's global outcomes In exploring the similarities Yang highlights important meeting points between the two world views with the potential to contribute to the mutual understanding and cooperation across cultures

Christianity and the Modern Woman in East Asia Garrett L. Washington, 2018-09-04 This edited volume explores the complex roles that Christian ideas and institutions played in the construction of modern womanhood in East Asia While contributing to gender dynamics that disprivileged women in China Japan and Korea Christianity was also instrumental in women's efforts to empower themselves and participate in the public sphere Many literate East Asian women mobilized Christian beliefs knowledge institutions and networks to raise the
