The Rise of English Provincial Art Trevor Fawcett, 1974 Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century Rafael Cardoso Denis, Colin Trodd, 2000 Throughout the nineteenth century academies functioned as the main venues for the teaching promotion and display of art Contemporary scholars have for the most part denigrated academic art calling it formulaic unoriginal and repetitious The contributors to Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century challenge this entrenched notion and consider how academies worldwide have represented an important system of artistic preservation and transmission Their essays eschew easy binaries that have reigned in academia for more than half a century and that simply oppose the avant garde to academicism The Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Elizabeth A. Pergam, 2017-07-05 An overdue study of a groundbreaking event this is the first book length examination of the Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Intended to rehabilitate Manchester's image at a heady time of economic prosperity the Exhibition became a touchstone for aesthetic social and economic issues of the mid nineteenth century Reverberations of this moment can be followed to the present day in the discipline of art history and its practice in public museums of Europe and America Highlighting the tension between art and commerce philanthropy and profit the book examines the Exhibition's organization and the presentation of the works of art in the purpose built Art Treasures Palace Pergam places the Exhibition in the context of contemporary debates about museum architecture and display With an analysis of the reception of both Ancient and Modern paintings the book questions the function of exhibitions in the construction of an art historical canon The book also provides an essential reference tool a compiled list of all of the paintings exhibited in 1857 that are now in public collections throughout the world with an analysis of the collecting trends manifest in their provenance The King's Artists : The Royal Academy of Arts and the Politics of British Culture 1760-1840 Holger Hoock, 2003-11-13 This is the story of the forging of a national cultural institution in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Britain The Royal Academy of Arts was the dominant art school and exhibition society in London and a model for art societies across the British Isles and North America This is the first study of its early years re evaluating the Academy's significance in national cultural life and its profile in an international context Holger Hoock reassesses royal and state patronage of the arts and explores the concepts and practices of cultural patriotism and the politicization of art during the American and French Revolutions By demonstrating how the Academy shaped the notions of an English and British school of art and influenced the emergence of the British cultural state he illuminates the politics of national culture and the character of British public life in an age of war revolution and reform Transfiguring the Arts and Sciences Jon Klancher, 2013-08 This book discusses how Romantic age writers and new cultural institutions transformed ideas of knowledge inherited from the early modern period The Creation of the Modern World Roy Porter, 2000 From a critically acclaimed author comes an engagingly written and groundbreaking new work that highlights the long underestimated British role in delivering the Enlightenment to the modern
