

The background of the cover is a dramatic painting. The upper half shows a massive, dark plume of smoke or ash rising from a volcano into a sky filled with lighter, billowing clouds. The lower half of the painting depicts a wide, dusty landscape. In the distance, a small cluster of buildings is visible. In the foreground, a group of people, some on horseback, are gathered, looking towards the eruption. The overall color palette is dominated by warm, earthy tones like browns, oranges, and greys, creating a sense of historical drama and scale.
