Rishi Of Bangladesh:

The Rishi of Bangladesh Dr Cosimo Zene, Cosimo Zene, 2014-04-08 This book is a study of the changing relationship over time 1856 1994 between the Rishi an ex Untouchable jati of Bengal South West Bangladesh and various groups of Catholic missionaries The book s originality and importance lies in its multi disciplinary approach which combines anthropological fieldwork historical research philosophical enquiry and contemporary missiological debates Moreover it addresses issues of great current relevance in its discussions of Orientalism Neo colonialism and Otherness The Political Philosophies of Antonio Gramsci and B. R. Ambedkar Cosimo Zene, 2013-10-23 Bridging two generations of scholarship on social inequality and modern political forms this book examines the political philosophies of inclusion of subalterns Dalits in Gramsci and Ambedkar s political philosophies It highlights the full range of Gramsci s philosophy of praxis and presents a more critical appreciation of his thought in the study of South Asian societies Equally Ambedkar s thought and philosophy is put to the forefront and acquires a prominence in the international context Overcoming geographical cultural and disciplinary boundaries the book gives relevance to the subalterns Following the lead of Gramsci and Ambedkar the contributors are committed apart from underscoring the historical roots of subalternity to uncovering the subalterns presence in social economic cultural educational literary legal and religious grounds The book offers a renewed critical approach to Gramsci and Ambedkar and expands on their findings in order to offer a present day political focus into one of the most crucial themes of contemporary society This book is of interest to an interdisciplinary audience including political theory post colonial studies subaltern studies comparative political philosophy Dalit studies cultural studies South Asian studies and the study of religions Marx, Marxism and the Spiritual Anjan Chakrabarti, Anup Dhar, Serap A.

Kayatekin, 2020-09-10 While Marxian theory has produced a sound and rigorous critique of capitalism has it faltered in its own practice of social transformation Has it faltered because of the Marxian insistence on the hyper secularization of political cultures The history of religions with the exception of some spiritual traditions has not been any less heartless and soulless This book sets up a much needed dialogue between a rethought Marxian praxis of the political and a rethought experience of spirituality Such rethinking within Marxism and spirituality and a resetting of their lost relationship is perhaps the only hope for a non violent future of both the Marxian reconstruction of the self and the social as also faith based life practices Building on past work in critical theory this book offers a new take on the relationship between a rethought Marxism and a rethought spirituality rethought in the life philosophy and works of Christian thinkers anti Christian thinkers Marxian thinkers those critical of Marxist Statecraft Dalit neo Buddhist thinkers thinkers drawing from Judaism as well as thinkers drawing critically from Christianity Contrary to popular belief this book does not see spirituality as a derivative of only religion This book also sees spirituality as what Marx designated the sigh of the oppressed against both social and religious orthodoxy In that sense spirituality is not just a displaced form of religion it is a displaced form of the political too

This book therefore sets up the much needed dialogue between the Marxian political and the spiritual traditions The chapters in this book were originally published in Rethinking Marxism A Journal of Economics Culture and Society Overtly Muslim, Covertly Boni Mark R.J. Faulkner,2006-05-01 This volume explores the way of life of the Boni community a hunter gatherer people that straddle the Kenya Somali border in East Africa The Boni converted to Islam some fifty years ago and the reasons for this both internal and external to the community are identified The book argues that former indigenous religious activity far from having died out is now being renegotiated so as to reflect an evolving Boni self identity in a multi ethnic setting as well as allowing the fermentation of resistance in the face of attempts at cultural hegemony advanced by outside forces Employing a phenomenological approach and a methodology based on participant observation this volume identifies three contrasting spheres of religious activity the bush the village centre and individual homesteads Intercultural Theology Mark J. Cartledge,David Cheetham,2010-11-01 A groundbreaking and trendsetting collection of essays introducing a new interdisciplinary area of theological studies Usable as a key text for modules in intercultural theology mission studies Black Theology and Pentecostal Studies at upper undergraduate and M level The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Rethinking Gramsci Marcus Green,2011-03-30 This edited volume provides a coherent and comprehensive assessment of Antonio Gramsci s significant contribution to the fields of political and cultural theory It contains seminal contributions from a broad range of important political and cultural theorists from around the world and explains the origins development and context for Gramsci s thought as well as analysing his continued relevance and influence to contemporary debates It demonstrates the multidisciplinary nature of Gramscian thought to produce new insights into the intersection of economic political cultural and social processes and to create a vital resource for readers across the disciplines of political theory cultural studies political economy philosophy and subaltern studies
