Risk And Uncertainty In The Changing Global Energy Market Implications For The Gulf:

Risk and Uncertainty in the Changing Global Energy Market The Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research, 2004-06-09 The complex dynamics of the world energy market make it virtually impossible to map clearly the contours of the emerging global scenario However realistic trend evaluation risk assessment change management strategies and provision for eventualities are imperatives for nations organizations and companies that have a major stake in the energy industry Uncertainties may originate from many quarters geopolitical factors market forces energy security issues environmental and safety concerns These risk factors call for careful analysis and effective solutions ECSSR's Eighth Annual Energy Conference held in Abu Dhabi from October 19-20 2002 assembled a panel of energy experts to identify and assess the major risks and uncertainties affecting the global energy market The conference presentations contained in this book shed light on issues such as geopolitical and military risks supply disruptions accidents and contingencies infrastructure constraints price fluctuations market uncertainties and technical challenges For both energy producers and consumers there are valuable guidelines on minimizing foreseeable risks through techniques such as energy supply diversification import reduction moves developing alternative energy sources building strategic links with suppliers signing regional cooperation agreements maintaining oil stockpiling implementing pricing strategies enhancing energy conservation increasing energy efficiency and countering speculative trading Risk and Uncertainty in the Changing Global Energy Market, 2004

Perspectives on Energy Risk André Dorsman, Timur Gök, Mehmet Baha Karan, 2014-02-17 Since the Industrial Revolution the efficiency with which energy resources are extracted and converted into work has played a prominent role in the accumulation of material wealth The prominent role of energy resources in conjunction with their scarcity and their uneven geographic distribution has had significant repercussions Collaboration competition and conflict among nation states for energy resources have created global geopolitical and market risks In this volume academic scholars and practitioners assess these risks from global geopolitical and market perspectives They do so by presenting empirical research and discussing our current understanding of this quickly changing and developing field This is the third volume in a series on energy organized by the Centre for Energy and Value Issues CEVI The previous volumes in the series were Financial Aspects in Energy 2011 and Energy Economics and Financial Markets 2012 Global Infrastructure Networks Colin Turner, Debra

Johnson, 2017-11-24 Infrastructure represents the core underpinning architecture of the global economic system Adopting an approach informed by realism this insightful book looks at the forces for the integration and fragmentation of the global infrastructure system The authors undertake a thorough examination of the main internationalised infrastructure sectors energy transport and information They argue that the global infrastructure system is a network of national systems and that state strategies exert powerful forces upon the form and function of this system Blue Black Sea Giray Saynur

Bozkurt, 2014-07-24 This book presents the opinions of experts and researchers from the Black Sea states with respect to history security politics strategy energy and economy in the region and explains various dimensions of the present international relations and problem areas from both theoretical and conceptual perspectives Offering the reader a comprehensive approach that covers a wide range of affairs it is hoped that this book will fill an important gap in international relations studies While the added word Blue in the title indicates our shared aspirations for a clean and peaceful future overall this book is intended to provide valuable academic assessments and share them with the wider world community thus disseminating findings about the regional and global policies being pursued in the Black Sea region today
