Natural Disaster Risk Management Ulrich Ranke, 2015-09-18 This textbook provides a thorough introduction to natural disaster risk management Many aspects of disaster risk management such as those involved in earthquakes volcanic eruptions floods avalanches and mudslides call for similar prevention and preparedness instruments management concepts and countermeasures This textbook assumes the viewpoint of a regional disaster risk manager who is responsible for a certain area and for making the lives of the people who live there safer regardless of the type of natural disaster that may occur The same holds true for boosting preparedness and awareness in the population at risk The book includes numerous examples of hazard mitigation concepts and techniques as well as ways of intensively involving the local population in prevention schemes at an early stage Furthermore it provides an in depth examination of the function of risk communication both as an instrument for disseminating official information and as a function of public media In closing a chapter on risk splitting offers insights into insurance based models for risk financing This comprehensive book is a must read for all students researchers and practitioners dealing with natural disaster risk management National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),

Becoming an Anthropologist Gerald Mars, 2015-10-05 Mars graphic and often vivid narrative can be read simply as the anecdotal memoirs of an anthropologist The experiences he recounts are sometimes hilarious touch occasionally on the dangerous and are always sensitively and expertly explored But for those who want to know more the book s expansive footnotes and references to key sources also offer a stimulating introduction to social anthropology its theories and its methods Mars begins by describing his childhood life in a tightly structured working class community during World War Two He then contrasts this with an account of the hidden underlife of an entrepreneurial crime prone seaside resort Blackpool where he worked as a spieler barker Two years experience of National Service provides an account of the social organisation of the RAF followed by discussion of aspects of the organisation of Cambridge University What follows then is a lifetime spent living and working in different cultures around the world The results are continual insights gained by comparison and contrasts that illuminate aspects not only of other cultures but also of our own
