Songlines of the Soul Veronica Goodchild, 2012-10-01 The title for this book comes from the ancient Aboriginal concept of song lines pathways to another world reached through dreamtime and visionary insight and encounters with the unknown realm of experience Veronica Goodchild addresses how dreams synchronicities UFO ET encounters Crop Circle mysteries and NDEs all point to the new unfolding vision of reality She draws on ancient mystery traditions to explore how this metamorphosis is already reflected cross culturally in Hopi Aztec Mayan Hindu Tibetan Maori Zulu Dogon and Egyptian cultures Songlines of the Soul proposes a new paradigm of reality a new worldview The signatures of this new reality are arising both in our own experiences and all around us if only we can stretch wide our stubbornly held perceptions of what is reality As we stand at a crucial turning point in our human history this book offers hope a call to awaken and expand our perceptions of the fundamental principles that orchestrate reality In an age when the answers offered by governments and traditional religion are no longer sufficient the quest for meaning must as it always has in the past arise first through visions dreams and journeys to other dimensions of consciousness The Seat of Consciousness in Ancient Literature Richard E. Lind,2015-01-09 For early civilizations consciousness and the sense of self were experienced as located in the center of the body most often near to or within the physical heart Enlightenment was understood as the illumination of a transformed spiritual heart Thus the mind of the body as a whole was represented by the heart soul In contrast modern culture places consciousness within the brain resulting in a mind body dualism This separation of mind and body has recently been emphasized as characteristic of the psychopathologies of the modern self This volume explores the understanding and experience of consciousness in the earliest civilizations before about 500 BCE Beginning with a description of ancient Western and Eastern heart consciousness the psychological and spiritual manifestations of the ancient mature heart soul are summarized Ancestor worship lineage identity primitive consciousness and the ways in which the external world was mirrored by the inner world provide additional clues about the experience of heart consciousness Finally the work addresses the fundamental changes in the experience of consciousness that led to the mind body dualism of today
