Make Learn Bible Toys Ages 23:

Toys in the Age of Wonder Mark Rich,2020-08-28 By the middle 1800s toys were appearing in forms that drew upon and that inspired advances in areas such as optics biology geography transportation and automation In these decades too a new type of wonder tale was being brought to maturity by a Poe inspired Jules Verne The modern wonder tale s highly charged vision expressed the hopes and the fears and the delights and the traumas engendered by new worlds idealism that Western pursuit of both mechanical and geographical conquest Exploring realms belonging to childhood literature science and history this innovative study weaves together the histories of wonder tales and children s toys focusing specifically on their modern aspects and how they reflect and express the social attitudes of that time period beginning around 1859 and ending around 1957

Material masculinities Ben Jackson,2025-04-08 Material Masculinities examines the material and consumer practices of over 1000 men from the middling and upper ranks of eighteenth century society c 1650 1850 It draws upon evidence from over 35 archives and museum collections to detail how material objects were integral for men in forming identities and shaping experiences For men of all social ranks ages and geographic locations material knowledge was imperative for masculine social identities to operate in a commercial society Before the centralised factory and widespread mass produced goods men personalised and repaired their goods products were shaped by men s attitudes and concerns Objects were tools in men s identity formation and the exercise of social and gendered power There was a reciprocal relationship between men and goods in this period men were active agents of material and commercial change driving product and aesthetic innovation

The Manual of Child Development ,1927 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1972 The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell,Nikolai Kremmentsov,2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind

The Dying Child Kristine Henriksen Garroway,2025 The death of a child is perhaps the most painful heartbreaking and seemingly unnatural experience we have the displeasure of living with Yet it is difficult to say with certainty whether or not this sentiment was shared by the inhabitants of ancient Israel Many studies have explored death in ancient societies by examining types of burial burial rites biblical notions of death and the afterlife care for the dead even cults of the dead yet no single study has been devoted to children and death in ancient Israel The study of childhood death is tightly entwined with the concerns of a field that is relatively new to the scholarship of ancient Israel personhood An exploration of the concept of personhood is needed in the context of childhood death In The Dying Child Kristine Henriksen Garroway argues for a stronger position of the child in current archeological trends Many archaeologists hesitate to ascribe various domestic objects to children despite their obvious presence in the ancient home This functionally ignores an entire class of people in the study of death In acknowledging the personhood of children in burials and other deathly rituals Garroway considers emotional and personal aspects of ancient Israeli life filling a critical gap in our understanding of this culture
