daily interactions form a continuous expression of cultural preservation as a weapon against difficult working conditions examining how this process unfolds through the use of cell phones food sharing and informal economic systems Ultimately Raising Brooklyn places the organization of domestic workers within the framework of a social justice movement creating a dialogue between workers who don't believe their exploitative work conditions will change and an organization whose members believe change can come about through public displays of solidarity

Spaces of Contention Byron Miller, 2016-04-01

As social movements have become more complex geographers are increasingly studying the spatial dynamics of collective resistance and sociologists and political scientists increasingly analyzing the role of space place and scale in contentious political activity Occupying a position at the intersection of these disciplinary developments this book brings together leading scholars to examine how social movements have employed spatial practices to respond to and shape changing social and political contexts It is organised into three main sections 1 Place Space and Mobility sites of mobilization and regulation 2 Scale and Territory structuring collective interests identities and resources and 3 Networks connecting actors and resources across space It concludes by suggesting that different spatialities place scale networks interlink within one another in particular instances of collective action playing distinctive yet complementary roles in shaping how these actions unfold in the political arena By mapping state of the art conceptual and empirical terrain across Geography Sociology and Political Science Spaces of Contention provides readers with a much needed guide to innovative research on the spatial constitution of social movements and how social movements tactically and strategically approach and produce space The Nation ,1912 A Detroit Anthology Anna Clark,2016-07-13 A unique perspective of the Motor City this anthology combines stories told by both longtime residents and newcomers from activists to teachers to artists to students While Detroit has always been rich in stories too often those stories are told back to the city by outsiders looking in believing they can explain Detroit back to itself As editor Anna Clark writes in the introduction These are the stories we tell each other over late nights at the pub and long afternoons on the porch We share them in coffee shops at church social hours in living rooms and while waiting for the bus These are stories full of nodding asides and knowing laughs These are stories addressed to the rhetorical you with the ratcheted up language that comes with it and these are stories that took real legwork to investigate You will not find positive stories about Detroit in this collection or negative ones But you will find true stories Featuring essays photographs art and poetry by Grace Lee Boggs John Carlisle Desiree Cooper Dream Hampton Steve Hughes Jamaal May Tracie McMillan Marsha Music Shaka Senghor Thomas J Sugrue and many others Invisible Bicycle ,2018-09-11 The Invisible Bicycle brings together different insights into the social cultural and economic history of the bicycle and cycling in historical eras of ubiquitous bicycle use that have remained relatively invisible in bicycle history It revisits the typical timeline of cycling s decline in the 1950s and 1960s and the renaissance beginning in the 1970s by bringing forth the large national and local variations varying uses and images of the bicycle and different bicycle cultures as well as their historical background and motivations To understand the role possibilities and challenges of the bicycle today it is necessary to know the history that has formed them Therefore The Invisible Bicycle is recommended also to present day practitioners and planners of bicycle mobility Contributors are Peter Cox Martin Emanuel Tiina M nnist Funk Timo Myllyntaus Nicholas Oddy Harry Oosterhuis William Steele Manuel Stoffers Sue Yen Tjong Tjin Tai Frank Veraart Making Outreach Visible Amy Driscoll,Ernest A. Faber,2017-06-13 Imagine a world where there are no building codes no licensing requirements no permit fees no inspectors no rules or regulations only common sense and the desire to build something better This is the world that forged America the land where the early pioneers and town developers thrived But this type of open environment is long gone It s prohibitively expensive for young entrepreneurs to start a business today In fact it is almost impossible to build anything unless you are part of a larger organization that has the expertise and resources to navigate the system Our municipal state and federal codes from business permitting and OSHA compliance to occupational licenses and tax requirements have blossomed out of control

Today's innovators and builders must ignore the rules go to places where the rules are not enforced or figure out how to get around them The New Pioneers is the story of Americans millennials immigrants artists and entrepreneurs who are doing just that in cities across the nation including Detroit San Diego New Orleans Phoenix and many more Written by journalist J P Faber The New Pioneers shows the entrepreneurs of today especially those in urban areas how they can work around obstacles to create wealth and revive our cities Small business owners and individual builders have the power to fix what's broken in society if only they are allowed to do so This book is an optimistic look at how we can rebuild our cities and jump start more small businesses It shows how we can make far better use of our resources both human and physical The New Pioneers paves a road to success in a crumbling world It's time for the little guy to have a fighting chance to get ahead once again
