African American Journalists Calvin L. Hall, 2009-07-01 In the last decade of the 20th century during a time when African Americans were starting to take inventory of the gains of the civil rights movement and its effects on the lives of black professionals in the public sphere the memoirs of several journalists were published a number of which became national bestsellers African American Journalists examines select autobiographies written by African American journalists in order to explore the relationship between race class gender and journalism practice At the heart of this study is the contention that contemporary memoirs written by African American journalists are quasi political documents _manifestos written in reaction to and against the forces of institutionalized racism in the newsroom The memoirs featured in this study include Jill Nelson s Volunteer Slavery My Authentic Negro Experience Nathan McCall s Makes Me Wanna Holler A Young Black Man in America Jake Lamar s Bourgeois Blues An American Memoir and Patricia Raybon s My First White Friend Confessions on Race Love and Forgiveness The exploration of these works increases our understanding of the problems that members of other underrepresented groups may face in the workplace

Those Trying Times John L. Donelson, 2025-10-22 Worship Over Wounds Poetry from the Olive Press When Crushing Births Calling This is more than a book of poems it s a collection of cries confessions and courage forged in the crushing place Written during a season the author calls going through the olive press these verses were birthed in the midst of heartbreak hardship and holy wrestling Just as Jesus endured Gethsemane to release the anointing within Him we too must sometimes be pressed to release the promises planted deep inside us If you ve ever wrestled with God over your calling If you ve battled silently through ministry marriage money or mental anguish If you ve tried to worship while bleeding in your spirit Then these words were written for you This book is for the believer who s serious about their salvation but weary from the weight of the journey It s for those who love God deeply yet wonder why He sometimes feels distant in their darkest hour Through raw Spirit breathed poetry you ll find Honest reflections from the valley of crushing Encouragement to keep worshiping through the wounds A reminder that the olive press doesn t destroy it extracts purpose Hope that your pain is not wasted but is producing something eternal May these pages minister to your soul draw you closer to the Holy Spirit and remind you that even in the press God is present and He s producing oil

America in Black and White Stephan Thernstrom, Abigail Thernstrom, 1999 This wide reaching survey of race relations in America over the past 50 years takes a controversial stance that the perception of serious race divisions in this country is outdated and dangerous

New York Magazine , 1994-02-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

I'm Black. I'm Christian. I'm Methodist. Lillian C. Smith, Erin Beasley, Justin Coleman, Jevon Caldwell-Gross, Pamela R. Lightsey, F. Willis Johnson, Vance P. Ross, Rodney Lorenzo Graves, Tori C. Butler, Rev. Rudy Rasmus, 2020-11-03 Ten personal narratives reveal the shared and distinct struggles of being Black in the Church facing historic and modern racism It s uncertain that Howard Thurman made the remark often attributed to him I have been writing this book all my life but there is little doubt that he was deeply immersed in reflection on the times that bear an uncanny resemblance to the present day which give voice to the Black Lives Matter movement Our life s book is filled with sentence upon sentence of marginalization pages of apartheid chapters of separate and unequal Now this season reveals volumes of violence against Blacks in America Ten Black women and men explore life through the lens of compelling personal religious narratives They are people and leaders whose lives are tangible demonstrations of the power of a divine purpose and evidence of what grace really means in face of hardship disappointment and determination Each of the journeys intersect because of three central elements that are the focus of this book We re Black We re Christians We re Methodists Each starts with the fact I m Black but to resolve the conflict of being Christian and Methodist means confronting aspects of White theology White supremacy and White racism in order to ground an oppositional experience toward domination over four centuries in America The confluence of the everyday indignities of being Black in America the outrageous egregious legalized lynching of George Floyd and the unforgivable disparities exposed once again by COVID 19 have conspired together to create a seminal moment in America and in The United Methodist Church in which we must find the courage to say unambiguously Black Lives Matter To stumble or choke on those words is beneath the gospel says Bishop Gregory Palmer who wrote the foreword to the collection Praise for I m Black I m Christian I m Methodist This book made me shout dance rage and hope all at once As a cradle Methodist I have deep love for my church and bless it for nurturing my walk with Christ and my passion for social justice At the same time I lament that my church is also the place where I have witnessed and been most wounded by virulent racism sexism heterosexism and ageism Yet I stay and struggle for the soul of the church because I am a Black Christian woman fired by the love of God in Christ Jesus I stay because this is MY church and the church of my ancestors Although I regularly question my decision to remain United Methodist it is stories like these from other exuberant love warriors that remind me that I am called by God to stay pray fight and flourish M Garlinda Burton deaconess and interim general secretary General Commission of Religion and Race Washington DC Racism continues to be the unacceptable scandal of American society and the American churches In spite of some gains such as the diversity of supporters for Black Lives Matter even the best intentioned among us remain largely ignorant of the actual life experience of those who are other than ourselves This collection of testimonies edited by Rudy Rasmus helps remedy that by simply recounting personal stories of being Black Christian and Methodist in the United States White Methodist Christians in particular need to read these stories and take them to heart so that racism and its divisiveness is countered by shared experience and recognition of common humanity across difference More White Methodists need not only reject racism in our society and church but become active anti racists willing to do the hard work to create the beloved community dreamed about by Martin Luther King in the 1960s civil rights movement Bruce C Birch Dean Emeritus and Professor Emeritus of Biblical Theology Wesley Theological Seminary Washington DC This book is a powerful collection interweaving personal stories denominational and intercultural practices and Black lives bearing hopeful witness Readers will have their consciousness raised and they will think more deeply about the meaning of beloved community and the embodiment of the justice of God Harold J Recinos Professor of Church and Society Perkins School of Theology SMU Dallas Texas For hundreds of years we have not listened This book is our chance to hear the words of the Black leaders in our church They will change us remake us and reform us Get ready to be transformed by painful truth and deep love Rev Dr Dottie Escobedo Frank Lead Pastor Catalina United Methodist Church Tucson Arizona I m Black gives readers a clear picture of the diversity and value of Black culture in church and society After reading the dynamic stories told by these faithful transformative church leaders Black lives will be cherished and systemic change for the better will take place Joseph W Daniels Jr Lead Pastor Emory United Methodist Church Washington D C Dr Rudy Rasmus and others give an insightful look into what it means to be black Christian and Methodist in America Their perspectives on the status and plight of being black in America are both engaging and riveting If

Nathan McCall, 2009-01-16 With the same personal authority and exhilarating directness he brought to his account of his passage from a prison cell to the newsroom of The Washington Post Nathan McCall delivers a series of front line reports on the state of the races in today s America The resulting volume is guaranteed to shake the assumptions of readers of every pigmentation and political allegiance In What s Going On McCall adds up the hidden costs of the stereotype of black athletic prowess which tells African American teenagers that they can only succeed on the white man s terms He introduces a fresh perspective to the debates on gangsta rap and sexual violence He indicts the bigotry of white churches and the complacency of the black suburban middle class celebrates the heroism of Muhammad Ali and defends the truth telling of Alice Walker
