Making And Metaphor A Discussion Of Meaning In Contemporary Craft:

Making and metaphor Gloria A. Hickey, 1994-01-01 This multidisciplinary collection of eighteen essays was presented at the conference of the same name It explores the complex and significant role of contemporary craft in society The authors show how linguistic and feminist studies are tools for understanding craft Historical analysis highlights how education architecture and industrial design have influenced craft products and our perceptions of them Social and cultural anthropology show how craft expresses backgrounds of its makers And ethnology and museum studies reveal the assumptions used in collecting identifying and exhibiting craft Published in English The Culture of Craft Peter Dormer, 1997-06-15 Dormer presents a series of lively clearly argued discussions about the relevance of handicraft in a world whose aesthetics and design are largely determined by technology The question of computer aided design in craft is also addressed The Persistence of Craft Paul Greenhalgh, 2003 In The Persistence of Craft contributors discuss the development of not only six specific crafts glass ceramics jewelry wood textiles and metal but also the trends and movements that have helped shape their developments Includes 180 full color illustrations Contemporary British Ceramics and the Influence of Sculpture Laura Gray, 2018-01-02 This book investigates how British contemporary artists who work with clay have managed in the space of a single generation to take ceramics from niche interest craft to the pristine territories of the contemporary art gallery This development has been accompanied and perhaps propelled by the kind of critical discussion usually reserved for the higher discipline of sculpture Ceramics is now encountering and colliding with sculpture both formally and intellectually Laura Gray examines what this means for the old hierarchies between art and craft the identity of the potter and the character of a discipline tied to a specific material but wanting to participate in critical discussions that extend far beyond clay Crafting new traditions Melanie Egan, Alan C. Elder, Jean Johnson, 2008-01-01 Crafting New Traditions Canadian Innovators and Influences brings together the work of eleven historians and craftspeople to address the two questions of who has influenced the recent history of Canadian studio craft and who will be considered as the pioneers of Canadian craft in the future Published in English Common ground , 1998-01-01 Integration of designing and making are presented here as the common ground between contemporary craft architecture and the decorative arts This perspective offers a nuanced understanding of craft A photo essay documenting the integration of craft and architecture at the Fuji Pavilion in the Montreal Botanical Garden is also included Published in English Material History Review , 2002

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been

general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville's The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day's Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett's Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson's Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan's Spider Cup 1990 embroidery Crafting

Identity Sandra Alföldy, 2005-07-26 By contrasting American experience with the Canadian context which includes a unique Quebec identity and a Native dimension Sandra Alföldy argues that the development of organizations advanced education for craftspeople and exhibition and promotional opportunities have contributed to the distinct evolution of professional craft in Canada over the past forty years Alföldy focuses on 1964-74 and the debates over distinctions between professional self taught and amateur craftspeople and between one of a kind and traditional craft objects She deals extensively with key people and events including American philanthropist Aileen Osborn Webb and Canadian philanthropist Joan Chalmers the foundation of the World Crafts Council 1964 and the Canadian Crafts Council 1974 the Canadian Fine Crafts exhibition at Expo 67 and the In Praise of Hands exhibition of 1974 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexploited materials this richly documented survey includes descriptions and illustrations of significant works and identifies the challenges that lie ahead for professional crafts in Canada Sloppy Craft Elaine Cheasley Paterson, Susan Surette, 2015-09-24 Sloppy Craft
