Making Desegregation Work How Schools Create Social Climates:

Making Desegregation Work Robert L. Crain, Rita E. Mahard, Ruth E. Narot, 1982 Historical Dictionary of School Segregation and Desegregation Jeffrey Raffel, 1998-10-15 Throughout the nation's history from before the Civil War through Reconstruction across the years of lynchings and segregation to the Brown v Board of Education decision and the battles over busing no issue has divided the American people more than race and at the heart of the race issue has been the conflict over school segregation and desegregation Prior to the Civil War South Carolina enacted the first compulsory illiteracy law which made it a crime to teach slaves to write and other Southern states soon followed South Carolina's example After the Civil War schools for blacks were founded throughout the South including many Historically Black Colleges and Universities The 1896 Plessy v Ferguson Supreme Court decision established the principle of separate but equal education which led to decades of segregation With the 1954 Brown decision the Supreme Court overturned the separate but equal principle and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 empowered the federal government to affect school desegregation The process of desegregation continues to this day with much debate and mixed results Through more than 260 alphabetically arranged entries this comprehensive reference book describes persons court decisions terms and concepts legislation reports and books types of plans and organizations central to the struggle for educational equality The volume covers topics ranging from emotionally laden terms such as busing to complex legal concepts such as de facto and de jure segregation Each entry includes factual information a summary of different viewpoints and a brief bibliography The book includes an introduction which outlines the history of school segregation and desegregation along with a chronology and extensive bibliographic material Thus this reference is a complete guide to school segregation and desegregation in elementary secondary and higher education in the United States Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985 Development During Middle Childhood Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on Child Development Research and Public Policy, Panel to Review the Status of Basic Research on School-Age Children, 1984-01-01 For the first time a report focuses specifically on middle childhood a discrete pivotal period of development In this review of research experts examine the physical health and cognitive development of 6 to 12 year old children as well as their surroundings school and home environment ecocultural setting and family and peer relationships The SAGE Handbook of Prejudice, Stereotyping and Discrimination John F Dovidio, Miles Hewstone, Peter Glick, Victoria M Esses, 2010-07-12 The SAGE Handbook of Prejudice Stereotyping and Discrimination provides comprehensive coverage on the state of research critical analysis and promising avenues for further study on prejudice stereotyping and discrimination Each chapter presents in depth reviews of specific topics describing the current state of knowledge and identifying the most productive new directions for future research Representing both traditional and emerging perspectives this multi disciplinary and truly international volume will serve as a seminal resource for students and scholars Education and Sociology

David Levinson, Peter Cookson, Alan Sadovnik, 2014-01-21 First Published in 2002 This single volume reference provides readers and researchers with access to details on a wide range of topics and issues in the sociology of education Entries cover both national and international perspectives and studies as well as tackling controversial points in education today including gender inequality globalization minorities meritocracy and more This is a key one of a kind resource for all educational researchers and educators Resources in Education ,1997-04 Integration Or Separation? Roy L.

Brooks,1996 Brooks says with frank clarity what few will admit integration has never worked and possibly never will This book presents his strategy for a middle way between the increasingly unworkable extremes of integration and separation

Reducing Prejudice and Discrimination Stuart Oskamp,2013-05-13 Finding ways to reduce prejudice and discrimination is the central issue in attacking racism in our society Yet this book is almost unique among scientific volumes in its focus on that goal This important book combines critical analysis of theories about how to reduce prejudice and discrimination with cutting edge empirical research conducted in real world settings as well as in controlled laboratory situations This book s outstanding contributors focus on a common set of questions about ways to reduce intergroup conflict prejudice and stereotyping They summarize their own research as well as others interpret the conclusions and suggest implications concerning the practical methods that have been or could be used in programs aimed at reducing intergroup conflict The chapters present solidly based critical analyses and research findings in clear reader friendly prose This book evolved from the Sixteenth Annual Claremont Symposium on Applied Social Psychology Each Symposium in the series concentrates on a single area in which social psychological knowledge is being applied to the resolution of a current social problem Ideal for teachers social workers administrators managers and other social practitioners who are concerned about prejudice and discrimination this book will also serve as a valuable foundation of knowledge in courses that examine this topic Women of Color in U.S. Society Maxine Baca Zinn, Bonnie Thornton Dill,1994 Women of color articulate shared experiences of subordination and survival Hope and Despair in the American City Gerald Grant,2011-04-04 Grant compares two cities his hometown of Syracuse New York and Raleigh North Carolina in order to examine the consequences of the nation s ongoing educational inequities The result is an ambitious portrait sometimes disturbing often inspiring of two cities that exemplify our nation s greatest educational challenges Explorations in Curriculum History Sherry L. Field,2005-02-01

Mission Statement The book series entitled Research in Curriculum and Instruction will focus on a considerations of curriculum practices at school district state and federal levels b relationship of curriculum practices to curriculum theories and societal issues c concerns derived from curriculum policy analyses and from analyses of various curriculum advocacies and d insights derived from investigations into curriculum history Although the series will emphasize the American curriculum scene aspects of curriculum practice and theory embedded in non US countries will not be overlooked Furthermore this series will not restrict its concern to general curriculum matters but it will draw explicit attention to curriculum issues relating to the several curriculum subjects The series primary concern will be to illuminate practice and issues toward informed and improved curriculum practice This volume will contain selected papers presented at meetings of the Society for the Study of curriculum History across the past decade plus several specially commissioned papers from senior scholars in the field Professor Field was the Society s President for some time during that period Papers will treat dimensions of the development of the American school curriculum both elementary and secondary Search For Structure Francis Ianni,1989 Francis Iannni has drawn upon over 1500 hours of listening to 300 adolescents studied over a period of ten years to weave a mosaic of insights into the protean nature of adolescence Edmund W Gordon Yale University

Computers and Cultural Diversity Robert A. DeVillar,Christian Faltis,1991-01-01 Race in the Schools Judith R. Blau,2003 Judith Blau s disturbing study presents strong evidence that our schools assumed by many to be an equalizing force in U S society are in fact racialized settings that reproduce white advantage to the detriment of all students Drawing on rich longitudinal databases Blau explores the values activities and educational experiences of a sample of young people born a decade or so after the 1964 Civil Rights Act was signed into law She focuses on topics that are both important in students lives and central in schooling attitudes toward integrity and cheating getting into trouble interracial relations learning and going to college Her remarkable findings challenge many assumptions long held by researchers and policymakers Race in the Schools combining an accessible style sophisticated methodology and clear policy relevance is a seminal study of the pervasive consequences of race in the U S education system America, History and Life ,1988 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide I'd Rather Be Learning Phyllis Greenleaf,2006-10-01 The impacts of standardized testing under No Child Left Behind and advocacy for educational change Information on child development and learning

Prejudice Reduction and the Schools James Lynch,1987 Students of the Dream Ruth Carbonette Yow,2017-11-27 Marietta High once a flagship public school northwest of Atlanta has become a symbol of the resegregation that is sweeping across the American South Ruth Carbonette Yow argues for a revitalized commitment to integration but one that challenges many orthodoxies of the civil rights struggle including colorblindness Bibliography on Racism, 1972-1975 Center for Minority Group Mental Health Programs (U.S.),1978
