Making Muslim Space:

Making Muslim Space in North America and Europe Barbara Daly Metcalf, 2023-04-28 Focusing on the private and public use of space this volume explores the religious life of the new Muslim communities in North America and Europe Unlike most studies of immigrant groups these essays concentrate on cultural practices and expressions of everyday life rather than on the political issues that dominate today's headlines The authors emphasize the cultural strength and creativity of communities that draw upon Islamic symbols and practices to define Muslim space against the background of a non Muslim environment The range of perspectives is broad encompassing middle class professionals mosque congregations factory workers in France and the north of England itinerant African traders and prison inmates in New York The truism that Islam is a religion of the word takes on concrete meaning as these disparate communities find ways to elaborate word centered ritual and to have the visual and aural presence of sacred words in the spaces they inhabit The volume includes 46 black and white photographs that illustrate Muslim populations in Edmonton Philadelphia the Green Haven Correction Facility Manhattan Marseilles Berlin and London among other places The focus on space directs attention to the new kinds of boundaries and consciousness that exist not only for these Muslim populations but for people from all backgrounds in today's ever more integrated world This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 Focusing on the private and public use of space this volume explores the religious life of the new Muslim communities in North America and Europe Unlike most studies of immigrant groups these essays concentrate on cultural practices and expressions of

Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe C.J.J. Moses, Tobias Müller, Adela Taleb, 2022-09-05 The role of Islam in public spaces is one of the most prevalent political questions in Europe Contestations around the construction of mosques the ban of Islamic veils and populist rhetoric about problematic neighbourhoods indicate Europe's struggles with the place of its second largest religion This book advocates for an analytical turn in the study of Islam in Europe using space as a central conceptual lens While spatial approaches are gaining traction in the study of religion migration ethnicity race and politics the chapters in this book argue that the critical potential of a spatialised analysis in the field of Islam in Europe remains largely unexplored This volume presents a collection of nine empirical studies that offer insights into how scholars might exploit the category of space when analysing both current political issues and broader conceptual questions in the social sciences And more specifically how does a spatial perspective on Islam contribute to a deeper understanding of the formations of the state ethnicity race secularism gender and colonial structures Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe is a significant new contribution to racial and ethnic studies in Europe and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Politics Sociology Social and

Britain's rural Muslims Sarah Hackett,2020-06-06 Immigration has long been associated with the urban landscape from accounts of inner city racial tension and discrimination during the 1960s and 1970s and studies of minority communities of the 1980s and 1990s to the increased focus on cities amongst contemporary scholars of migration and diaspora Though cities have long provided the geographical frameworks within which a significant share of post war migration has taken place Sarah Hackett argues that that there has long existed a rural dimension to Muslim integration in Britain This book offers the first comprehensive study of Muslim migrant integration in rural Britain across the post 1960s period examining the previously unexplored relationship between Muslim integration and rurality by using the county of Wiltshire in the South West of England as a case study Drawing upon a range of archival material and oral histories it challenges the long held assumption that local authorities in more rural areas have been inactive and even disinterested in devising and implementing migration integration and diversity policies and sheds light on smaller and more dispersed Muslim communities that have traditionally been written out of Britain's immigration history

Muslims in the United States Karen Isaksen Leonard, 2003-06-19 As the United States wages war on terrorism the country's attention is riveted on the Muslim world as never before While many cursory press accounts dealing with Muslims in the United States have been published since 9 11 few people are aware of the wealth of scholarly research already available on the American Islamic population In Muslims in the United States: The State of Research Karen Isaksen Leonard mines this rich vein of research to provide a fascinating overview of the history and contemporary situation of American Muslim communities Leonard describes how Islam never a monolithic religion has inevitably been shaped by its experience on American soil American Muslims are a religious minority and arbiters of Islamic cultural values and jurisprudence must operate within the framework of America's secular social and legal codes while coping with the ethnic differences among Muslim groups that have long divided their communities Arab Muslims tend to dominate mosque functions and teaching Arabic and the Qur'an whereas South Asian Muslims have often focused on the regional and national mobilization of Muslims around religious and political issues By the end of the 20th century however many Muslim immigrants had become American citizens prompting greater interchange among these groups and bridging some cultural differences African American Muslims remain the most isolated group a minority within a minority Many African American men have converted to Islam while in prison leading to a special concern among African American Muslims for civil and religious rights within the prison system Leonard highlights the need to expand our knowledge of African American Muslim movements which are often not regarded as legitimate by immigrant Muslims Leonard explores the construction of contemporary American Muslim identities examining such factors as gender sexuality race class and generational differences within the many smaller national origin and sectarian Muslim communities including secular Muslims Sufis and fundamentalists Muslims in the United States provides a thorough account of the impact of September 11th on the Muslim community Before the terrorist attacks Muslim leaders had been mostly optimistic envisioning a growing role for Muslims in U S society Afterward despite a brave show of unity and support for the nation Muslim organizations became more open in showing their own conflicts and divisions and more vocal in opposing militant Islamic ideologies By providing a concise summary of significant historical and contemporary research on Muslims in the United States this volume will become an essential resource for both the scholar and the general reader interested in understanding the diverse communities that constitute Muslim America
