Mom is now displaced with fathers who don't think of themselves as babysitting their own children but as central decision makers along with mothers as parents

Deconstructing Dads: Changing Images of Fathers in Popular Culture is an interdisciplinary edited collection of essays authored by prominent scholars in the fields of media sociology and cultural studies who address how media represent the image of the father in popular culture. This collection explores the history of representation of fathers like the bumbling dad to question and challenge how far popular culture has come in its representation of paternal figures. Each chapter of this book focuses on a different aspect of media including how advertising creates expectations of play and father crime shows and the new hero father and men as paternal figures in horror films. The book also explores changing definitions of fatherhood by looking at such subjects as how the media represents sperm donation as complicating the definition of father and how specific groups have been represented as fathers including gay men as dads and Latino fathers in film. This collection examines the media's depiction of the good father to study how it both challenges and reshapes the ways in which we think of family masculinity and gender roles.

Humanities Lawrence Boudon, 2002-08-01 Beginning with volume 41, 1979, the University of Texas Press became the publisher of the Handbook of Latin American Studies, the most comprehensive annual bibliography in the field. Compiled by the Hispanic Division of the Library of Congress and annotated by a corps of more than 130 specialists in various disciplines, the Handbook alternates from year to year between social sciences and humanities. The Handbook annotates works on Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean, and the Guianas, Spanish South America, and Brazil, as well as materials covering Latin America as a whole. Most of the subsections are preceded by introductory essays that serve as biannual evaluations of the literature and research under way in specialized areas. The Handbook of Latin American Studies is the oldest continuing reference work in the field. Lawrence Boudon became the editor in 2000. The subject categories for Volume 58 are as follows: Electronic Resources for the Humanities; Art History including ethnohistory; Literature including translations from the Spanish and Portuguese; Philosophy; Latin American Thought; Music.

Border Culture Ilan Stavans, 2010-02-09 The border between the United States and Mexico, despite attempts at containment, remains a vast and uniquely malleable yet indefinable region. With Border Culture, Ilan Stavans has collected essays representative of the tangled experiences and issues central to life between cultures. Divided into two sections, Border Culture covers topics essential to better understanding this often misunderstood region and state of mind. The first section, Considerations, culls essays covering socio-economic and political topics illustrating the hyper-reality of life and living on La Frontera. Section two, Testimonios, takes careful consideration of lives affected by the border, either as a finite place, alternate universe, or the framework of the border as a state of mind through various historic and literary accounts of La Frontera. This enlightening and comprehensive collection will no doubt help readers better understand border culture.
