Short Stories for Children Walter de la Mare, 2012-07-18 The publication of Short Stories for Children celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of Walter de la Mare's death It is also the culmination of a major literary enterprise For many people Walter de la Mare 1873 1956 is as great a writer of fiction as of poetry But the majority of his short stories of which there are a hundred have long been unavailable Short Stories brings them all together in three volumes in the first comprehensive collection to be published The third and last volume Short Stories for Children starts with Broomsticks and Other Tales of 1925 with its twelve stories and continues with The Lord Fish of 1933 with seven stories It includes three distinctive stories Pigtails Ltd The Thief and A Nose that have never been reprinted since they originally appeared in Broomsticks Quirky disparate unpredictable acutely observed sometimes frightening and often preoccupied with states of mind and personal identity these stories have much in common with the adult stories Some of them are peopled with giants witches kind elves evil and spiteful fairies and imprisoned maidens in castles but most are not We find ourselves in railway trains a mansion in the City of London another Elizabethan one in a mysterious tract of country a remote farm house near the sea a waterlogged forest a drawing room being watched by a fly and among other things we encounter a wise monkey a haunted cat a fish magician a baron transmogrified into a donkey a thief desperate to be burgled a man who believes he has a wax nose and a godmother celebrating her 350th birthday As in de la Mare's poems everyday reality may at any time become undercut by disturbing uncertainty and dark though not always malign forces. A full understanding of the poems and stories is impossible without knowledge of both Vivid and timeless. Bold's original woodcut designs and Rex Whistler's original engravings have been used to illustrate the two parts of the book. Punch on the children's stories. Whether Walter de la Mare is writing of scarecrows or piccaninnies, cats, fish, very old ladies, an admiral with a magic jacket or a godmother who could offer three centuries of life, he is enchanted and enchanting. There is a wisdom as well as magic or perhaps one should say a magical wisdom. TLS on Short Stories 1895-1926 and Short Stories 1927-1956. What strikes one most about them is how truly peculiar they are; it is good to see these dark and disquieting stories back in print. Martin Seymour Smith in Scotland on Sunday on Short Stories 1895-1926. He was so great that like all the greatest, his greatness functions as an assumption that goes hardly even recognized; the chief emotion is as it should be, one of immense gratitude. Lord David Cecil. Beautiful, enigmatic and disquieting stories. Angela Carter. De la Mare is a master of mise en scene. Prose with the most vivid and unsettling intensity which resembles some of what the surrealists were producing in France. Contents of Short Stories for Children: 1. Broomsticks and Other Tales 1925.
