Patrick Hamilton (Novelist.),1953 The Charmer Allan Prior,2013-10-24 Ralph Ernest Gorse the suave but utterly heartless anti hero of Patrick Hamilton s classic The West Pier is here revisited by Z Cars creator Allan Prior in the novelisation of his acclaimed 1987 television serial of the same name In the late 1930s the womanising Gorse insinuates himself into the life of a widow who falls head over heels for him Donald Stimpson the widow s would be suitor vengefully pursues Gorse when the unrepentant conman relieves her of a considerable portion of her wealth but Gorse will stop at nothing to evade his enemy

Heroes and Heroism in British Fiction Since 1800 Barbara Korte,Stefanie Lethbridge,2016-11-09 This book is about the manifestations and explorations of the heroic in narrative literature since around 1800 It traces the most important stages of this representation but also includes strands that have been marginalised or silenced in a dominant masculine and higher class framework the studies include explorations of female versions of the heroic and they consider working class and ethnic perspectives The chapters in this volume each focus on a prominent conjuncture of texts histories and approaches to the heroic Taken together they present an overview of the literary heroic in fiction since the late eighteenth century City and Shore Gillian Mary Hanson,2004-06-02 Certain settings have long been a common element in British mystery and detective fiction the quaint village the country manor the seaside resort the streets of London More than simply providing background physical setting in particular the city of London and the British seashore takes on an added dimension in a sense becoming a player in the mysteries one that symbolizes intensifies and illuminates aspects of the British mystery novel The first section examines 18 British mystery novels set in the city of London the second covers 15 novels set by the sea The novels span the twentieth century among the authors whose works are included are Agatha Christie Graham Greene G K Chesterton and P D James The book includes a short biography and listing of primary works for the authors covered and appendices offer suggested fiction utilizing the two settings and critical nonfiction covering the genre Patrick Hamilton John Harding,2007 Provides an appraisal of Hamilton s major novels as well as his successful stage plays Rope and Gaslight This title draws on the views of a variety of commentators including Michael Holroyd Doris Lessing Claud Coburn and many others as well as considering how Hamilton s political beliefs affected his work Impromptu in Moribundia Patrick Hamilton,2018-12-06 I recommend Hamilton at every opportunity because he was such a wonderful writer and yet is rather under read today All his novels are terrific Sarah Waters If you were looking to fly from Dickens to Martin Amis with just one overnight stop then Hamilton is your man Nick Hornby Patrick Hamilton s novels were the inspiration for Matthew Bourne s new dance theatre production The Midnight Bell Impromptu in Moribundia is a satirical fable about one nameless man s trespass through a fantastical machine called the Asteradio into a parallel universe on a far off planet where the miserably dull affairs of England are mirrored and transformed into an apparent idyll of bourgeois English imagination Moribundia is the physical enactment of the stereotypes and myths of English middle class culture and consciousness Yet the narrator comes to discover that he has stumbled among a people characterised by cupidity ignorance complacency meanness ugliness short sightedness cowardice credulity hysteria and when the occasion called for it cruelty and blood thirstiness The Anatomy of the Novel (Routledge Revivals) Marjorie Boulton, 2014-05-01 First published in 1975 this title provides an introduction to the study of the novel Marjorie Boulton deals systematically with the major elements of plot character authorial conventions narrative structure and dialogue and distinguishes different types of fiction The emphasis is on the mainstream novel with examples and arguments illustrated by quotations from five classics Of particular value to students of English Literature this reissue aims to help the reader not only to read novels more discerningly and to discuss them more profitably but also to relish the reading more

Horror on the Stage Amnon Kabatchnik, 2023-06-20 There are numerous publications about the horror genre in film and television but none that provide information about horror on a legitimate stage until now This book highlights the most terrifying moments in theater history from classical plays like Aeschylus Prometheus Bound and Euripides Medea to the violence of the Grand Guignol company productions in 18th century France and present day productions like Stephen Sondheim's musical Sweeney Todd Stephen King's Carrie and dark 21st century plays by Clive Barker and Conor McPherson The book compiles the history and behind the scenes tales surrounding stage productions about monsters hauntings and horrors both historical and imagined Included are the nightmarish adaptations of popular writings from Edgar Allan Poe Oscar Wilde H G Wells Henry James Arthur Conan Doyle and others as well as plays starring popular characters like Frankenstein Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde the Invisible Man the Phantom of the Opera and the Woman in Black More than 500 plays are documented accompanied by dozens of photographs Entries include plot synopses existing production data and evaluations by critics and scholars

In Love with Hell William Palmer, 2021-04-22 Sympathetic and wonderfully perceptive a heartbreaking read NICK COHEN Critic Wise witty and empathetic outstanding JIM CRACE A fascinating treatment of the age old problem of writers and drink which displays the same subtle qualities as William Palmer's own undervalued novels D J TAYLOR An enjoyable exploration of an enduringly fascinating subject Palmer is above all a dispassionate critic and is always attentive to and unwaveringly perceptive about the art of his subjects as well as their relationship with alcohol his treatment is even handed and largely without judgement He tries to understand without either condoning or censuring the impulses behind often reprehensible behaviour SOUMYA BHATTACHARYA New Statesman A vastly absorbing and entertaining study of this ever interesting subject ANDREW DAVIES screenwriter and novelist In Love with Hell is a fascinating and beautifully written account of the lives of eleven British and American authors whose addiction to alcohol may have been a necessary adjunct to their writing but ruined their lives Palmer's succinct biographies contain fine descriptions of the writers their work and the times they lived in and there are convincing insights into what led so many authors to take to drink PIERS PAUL READ Why do some writers destroy themselves by drinking alcohol Before our health conscious age it would be true to say that many writers drank what we now regard as excessive amounts Graham Greene for instance drank on a daily basis quantities of spirits and wine and beer most doctors would consider as being dangerous to his health But he was rarely out of control and lived with his considerable wits intact to the age of eighty six W H Auden drank the most of a bottle of spirits a day but also worked hard and steadily every day until his death Even T S Eliot for all his pontifical demeanour was extremely fond of gin and was once observed completely drunk on a London Tube station by a startled friend These were not writers who are generally regarded as alcoholics Alcoholic is in any case a slippery word as exemplified by Dylan Thomas s definition of an alcoholic as someone you dislike who drinks as much as you The word is still controversial and often misunderstood and misapplied What acclaimed novelist and poet William Palmer s book is interested in is the effect that heavy drinking had on writers how they lived with it and were sometimes destroyed by it and how they described the whole private and social world of the drinker in their work He looks at Patrick Hamilton the feverish magic that alcohol can work Jean Rhys As soon as I sober up I start again Charles Jackson Delirium is a disease of the night Malcolm Lowry I love hell I can t wait to go back there Dylan Thomas A womb with a view John Cheever The singing of the bottles in the pantry Flann O Brien A pint of plain is your only man Anthony Burgess Writing is an agony mitigated by drink Kingsley Amis Beer makes you drunk Richard Yates The road to Revolutionary Road and Elizabeth Bishop The writer s writer s writer
