A Way of Life, Like Any Other Darcy O'Brien, 2014-07-01 This PEN Hemingway Award winner about coming of age in Los Angeles is a little gem of a novel a masterwork of Hollywood fiction Salon He's a child of 1940s Hollywood specifically Casa Fiesta a ranch in the Malibu hills that he shares with his mother a onetime Broadway headliner and his father a star of Westerns But when his parents fall out of favor in Tinseltown the narrator of this exquisitely crafted dark comedy loses his youthful idyll and accompanies his lovesick mother on a vodka soaked international quest for romance and redemption Meanwhile his father lives in diminished circumstances in California clinging to his silver screen mementos trusting that someday soon his ex wife and his career will return Tired of tending bar at his mother's parties and listening to his father's sad tales of former glory the boy moves in with his best friend's family in Beverly Hills But nothing in La La Land is quite what it seems and when his new home turns out to be just as dysfunctional as the last our teenage hero must somehow learn to accept his parents while finding the courage to break free and become his own man This award winning novel a kind of Catcher in the Rye for the Cheap Trick generation GQ was cited by the Guardian as one of the ten best neglected literary masterpieces Written by a New York Times bestselling author who was a child of Hollywood movie stars himself it has been praised for its spectacularly deadpan humor by the Atlantic Monthly and called an insightful coming of age tale by the Austin Chronicle The Tribe of Pyn David Cowart, 2015-12-02 In The Tribe of Pyn Cowart offers illuminating readings of several important novelists now at the height of their powers whose work has received fairly limited scholarly attention thus far Jonathan Franzen Alice Walker David Foster Wallace Gloria Naylor Richard Powers and a raft of others are examined with lapidary care Wrestling with the challenges inherent to distinguishing generational character especially in the postmodern context which is often marked by its disavowal of ideas of origin etc Cowart teases out interactions and entanglements that help illuminate the work of the younger writers at the center of this study and also that of the trailblazers on its ragged frontiers By comparing literary figures born in the 1940s 1950s 1960s and later with those born in the 1920s and 1930s Cowart seeks to map the changing terrain of contemporary letters Hardly epigones he argues the younger writers add fresh inflections to the grammar of literary postmodernism Younger writers can continue to make it new Cowart establishes without needing to dismantle the aesthetic they have inherited from a parental generation
