Mrs Chippys Last Expedition The Remarkable Journey Of Shackletons Polar Bound Cat:

Mrs. Chippy's Last Expedition Caroline Alexander, 1999-03-24 The carpenter has a very fine cat who is known as Mrs Chippie from the diary of Commander F A Worsley captain of Shackleton s Endurance When Sir Ernest Shackleton s ship Endurance became trapped in the Antarctic ice all twenty nine members of the crew were pushed to their limits of survival including Mrs Chippy the ship s estimable cat Fortunately for posterity Mrs Chippy left a diary of the ordeal Closely based on the true events of Shackleton s heroic journey and illustrated with authentic photographs taken by Frank Hurley expedition photographer Mrs Chippy s Last Expedition is a firsthand account of one of the greatest adventures in history from a unique point of view

Mrs. Chippy's Last Expedition Caroline Alexander, 1999-01 A diary of an astute male cat Mrs Chippy documents his journey to Antarctica with human associate Harry Chippy McNeish Quick and Popular Reads for Teens Pam Spencer Holley, 2009 Compiles and annotates YALSA s Popular Paperbacks for Young Adults and Quick Picks for Reluctant Readers Includes theme lists

Creating Heritage Thomas Carter, David Harvey, Roy Jones, Iain Robertson, 2019-11-15 This book investigates the selection process of heritagisation to understand what specific pasts are being selected or rejected for representation who is selecting them how and to whom they are being represented and why they are being presented or dismissed in the ways that they are Some aspects of our pasts are venerated and memorialised for a variety of reasons while others are forgotten or even hidden This volume thus provides examples from across a spectrum Some phenomena are well suited to heritagisation such as animals memorialised for their bravery long past agricultural techniques and implements and impressive landscapes However this book also deals with products e g tobacco historical periods e g the Third Reich and scientific techniques e g genetic modification with negative connotations that extend beyond their heritage attributes This volume considers how the actors in the heritage industry admit valorise prioritise and rationalise historic resources as heritage products These findings provide practical examples of how heritage institutions privilege frame and or exclude a wide range of heritage items They also contrast the invocations of sectional local national or class based and more cosmopolitan heritages and consider the extent to which innovation and change are or can be acknowledged within the heritage discourse

A Cat's Tale Baba the Cat, Paul Koudounaris, 2020-11-10 A fun fanciful and even informative history of felines as revealed by a very learned tabby with a knack for hunting down facts People Since the dawn of civilization felines have prowled alongside mankind as they expanded their territory and spread the myth of human greatness And today cats are peddled on social media as silly creatures here to amuse humans with their antics But this is an absurd self centered fantasy The true history of felines is one of heroism love tragedy sacrifice and gravitas Not entirely convinced Well get ready because Baba the Cat is here to set the record straight Spanning almost every continent and thousands yes thousands of years Baba s complex story of feline survival presents readers with a diverse cast of cats long forgotten from her prehistoric feline ancestors and the ancient Egyptian cat goddess Bastet to the daring mariners at the height of oceanic discovery key intellectuals in the Enlightenment period revered heroes from World Wars I and II and the infamous American tabbies Baba a talented model in addition to a scholar goes beyond surface level scratches pairing her freshly unearthed research with a series of stunning costume portraits to bring history to life A paws on journey through the feline hall of fame with in depth research and four legged testaments that will make you rethink who defines history A Cat s Tale is a one of a kind chronicle that introduces readers to the illustrious ancestors of their closest companions and shows once and for all that cats know exactly what they re doing Almost certainly the most unique cat history book ever published Smithsonian Magazine

Jonathan Raban has written with infectious fascination about people and places in transition or on the margins about journeys undertaken and destinations never quite reached and as an expat about what it means to feel rooted in America Spanning two decades Driving Home charts a course through the Pacific Northwest American history and current events as witnessed by a super sensitive all seeing eye Proving that an outsider is the keenest observer of the scene that natives take for granted this collection of Jonathan Raban s essays affirms his place as the most literate perceptive and humorous commentator on the places characters and obsessions that constitute the American scene Raban spots things we might otherwise miss he calls up the apt metaphors that transform things into phenomena He is one of our most gifted observers Newsday Shackleton Jonathan Shackleton,John MacKenna,2002 By endurance we conquer Shackleton family motto Eighty years after Ernest Shackleton s death his legend and the extraordinary story of the Endurance South Pole expedition still hold a grip on the public imagination Trapped in drifting polar pack ice for ten months Ernest Shackleton and his crew fought for survival against all the odds When the Endurance was finally crushed they were stranded on ice floes for more than a year before reaching Elephant Island From there Shackleton and five of his men embarked on the most remarkable rescue mission in maritime history sailing in a small open boat to South Georgia Island across eight hundred miles of the world's roughest seas to bring help to the others. Though he failed to reach the South Pole, Shackleton's story lives on because of his unique qualities of leadership and the extraordinary fact that all of his men survived. This compelling narrative probes the profound influence of Shackleton's Irish and Quaker roots in the making of a great leader. It offers a vivid portrait of a man at odds with the world and with himself, whose ambition was tempered by his flawed humanity and egalitarianism. Here too are the untold stories of Shackleton's upbringing in Kildare, his time in the Merchant Navy, his 1901 voyage on the Discovery with Robert Falcon Scott, his 1907 Nimrod expedition, his marriage and love affairs, his life as a public figure and politician, and the haunting story of his final fatal expedition on the Quest. Drawing on family records, diaries, and letters, and hitherto unpublished photographs and archive material, this mesmerizing book takes us beyond the myth to Shackleton, the man for whom optimism is true moral courage and whose greatest triumph was that of life over death.

Shackleton: An Irishman in Antarctica is lavishly illustrated with more than a hundred photographs, maps, and engravings, some of them appearing in print for the first time. Shackleton: An Irishman in Antarctica is copublished by the Lilliput Press in Dublin and the University of Wisconsin Press. It presents Shackleton family history with a particular focus on the explorer.

Antarctica Jean de Pomereu, Daniella McCahey, 2022-10-27. This stunning and powerfully relevant book tells the history of Antarctica through 100 varied and fascinating objects drawn from collections around the world. Retracing the history of Antarctica through 100 varied and fascinating objects drawn from collections across the world, this beautiful and absorbing book is published to coincide with the 250th anniversary of the first crossing into the Antarctic Circle by James Cook aboard Resolution on 17th January 1773. It presents a gloriously visual history of Antarctica from Terra Incognita to the legendary expeditions of Shackleton and Scott to the frontline of climate change. One of the wildest and most beautiful places on the planet, Antarctica has no indigenous population or proprietor. Its awe-inspiring landscapes, unknown until just two centuries ago, have been the backdrop to feats of human endurance and tragedy, scientific discovery, and environmental research. Sourced from polar institutions and collections around the world, the objects that tell the story of this remarkable continent range from the iconic to the exotic, from the refreshingly mundane to the indispensable: snow goggles adopted from Inuit technology by Amundsen, the lifeboat used by Shackleton and his crew, a bust of Lenin installed by the 3rd Soviet Antarctic Expedition, the Polar Star aircraft used in the first trans-Antarctic flight, a sealing club made from the penis bone of an elephant seal, the frozen beard as a symbol of Antarctic heroism and masculinity, ice cores containing up to 800,000 years of climate history. This stunning book is both endlessly fascinating and a powerful demonstration of the extent to which Antarctic history is human history and human future too.

Screening Nature Anat Pick, Guinevere Narraway, 2013-11-01. Environmentalism and ecology are areas of rapid growth in academia and society at large. Screening Nature is the first comprehensive work that groups together the wide range of concerns in the field of cinema and the environment and what could be termed posthuman cinema. It comprises key readings that highlight the centrality of nature and nonhuman animals to the cinematic medium and to the language and institution of film The book offers a fresh and timely intervention into contemporary film theory through a focus on the nonhuman environment as principal register in many filmic texts Screening Nature offers an extensive resource for teachers undergraduate students and more advanced scholars on the intersections between the natural world and the worlds of film It emphasizes the cross cultural and geographically diverse relevance of the topic of cinema ecology
