Women in Christian History Carolyn DeArmond Blevins, 1995 For much of Christian history the role of women in the life of the church both local and universal has been downplayed overlooked or simply denied Such a state of affairs of course also denies the testimony of the church's Scriptures regarding the key role women played in Jesus' own ministry and that of the early church It denies or deliberately overlooks the significant role of women in the life of the church throughout the church's history down to and including the present day In recent years such denial of the significant place of women in Christian history of course has been addressed But nowhere is there available a more comprehensive bibliography than the present one compiled by Carolyn Blevins The reach of Blevins's bibliography is wide from the earliest church to present times across every ethnic and national boundary and throughout virtually every segment of the church Catholic and Protestant and stripes in between or beyond This is in many ways but a beginning place Yet with the help of Blevins's good work students teachers researchers historians and all other seekers after the significant place of women in Christian history have indeed a place to make a good beginning
