Mrs Oliphant A Literary Life:

Mrs Oliphant Elisabeth Jay,1995 As an expatriate Scotswoman Margaret Oliphant 1828 97 started her prolific and accomplished writing career removed from the centre of Victorian literary life This comprehensive biography contains an often surprising portrait of the professional Victorian woman writer The Autobiography and Letters of Mrs. M. O. W. Oliphant M O W Oliphant,2013-10 Margaret Oliphant Wilson Oliphant 1828 1897 was a Scottish writer of 120 works including novels travel books histories and volumes of literary criticism Her second cousin Anna Louisa Walker Coghill 1836 1907 an English and Canadian teacher and author edited Mrs Oliphant s autobiography The Days of My Life Margaret Wilson Oliphant,2015-01-19 A novel first published in 1857 by Margaret Oliphant the Scottish Victorian fiction and historical writer who wrote as Mrs Oliphant The Days of My Life an Autobiography Oliphant,2016-04-05 This collection of literature attempts to compile many of the classic works that have stood the test of time and offer them at a reduced affordable price in an attractive volume so that everyone can enjoy them The Days of My Life Oliphant,2022-12-21 I WAS going home from the village and it was an autumn evening just after sunset when every crop was cut and housed in our level country and when the fields of stubble and browned grass had nothing on them except here and there a tree They say our bare flats in Cambridgeshire are neither picturesque nor beautiful I cannot say for that but I know no landscape has ever caught my eye like the long line of sunburnt wiry grass and the great wide arch above with all its shades of beautiful color There were no hedgerows to skirt the path on which I was and I saw nothing between me and the sky save a solitary figure stalking along the highway and in the other direction the clump of trees which surrounded Cottiswoode the sky in the west was still full of the colors of the sunset and from the horizon it rose upward in a multitude of tints and shades the orange and red melting into a rosy flush which contrasted for a while and then fell into the sweet calm peaceful tone of the full blue In the time of the year and the look of the night there was alike that indescribable composure and satisfaction which are in the sunny evenings after harvest the work was done the day was fading everything was going home the rooks sailed over the sky and the laborer trudged across the moor Labor was over and provision made and the evening and the night peace and refreshment and rest were coming for every man I do not suppose I noticed this at the time but I have the strongest impression of it all in my remembrance now Margaret Oliphant's Curative Gothic Literature Katerina García-Walsh,2025-11-06 Prolific Scottish novelist Margaret Oliphant 1828 1897 remembered chiefly for her realist fiction and biting literary criticism of contemporary authors also wrote nineteen supernatural tales This monograph offers a comprehensive exploration of Oliphant s Gothic literature in the light of her religious beliefs cultural context and experiences of death and mourning as she survived her husband and all six of her children Oliphant s stories set in the afterlife depict the dead as inhabiting a new existence characterised by spiritual growth while her tales set on earth attempt contact between the mortal and immortal planes Garc a Walsh illustrates Oliphant s unique theological conception of afterliving which ultimately seeks to eradicate the divide between the living and their deceased loved ones reimagining death as a liminal passage towards God and divine self development This book thus suggests a new direction for Gothic studies by showing how Oliphant's supernatural fiction provided a means of curative writing transforming the traumatic reality of death into a source of hope The volume is suited for students researchers and academics in the disciplines of literature and history particularly the fields of nineteenth century studies Victorian studies and Gothic studies with an interest in women's writing theology and mental health trauma studies
