The Changing World of Contemporary South Asian Poetry in English Mitali P. Wong, M. Yousuf Saeed, 2019-07-02 This collection uses a transnational approach to study contemporary English language poetry composed by poets of South Asian origin The poetry contains themes motifs and critiques of social changes and the contributors seek to encapsulate the continually changing environments that these contemporary poets write about The contributors show that English language poetry in South Asia is hybridized with imagery and figurative language adapted from the vernacular languages of South Asia The chapters examine women s issues concerns of marginalized groups such as the Dalit community and the people of Northeastern India social changes in Sri Lanka the changing society of Pakistan and the formation of the identity in the several nation states that resulted from the British colony of India

Practical Tantra (HB) William Schindler, 2019-08-10 Though often associated with sexual practices traditional Hindu Tantra presents a body of sophisticated psycho physical techniques for attaining enlightenment The tradition is often perplexing to the uninitiated due to Tantra s use of metaphors that serve to keep the teachings secret from outsiders The author reveals the secrets and hidden meanings of important Tantric symbols and distills 50 years of practice and teaching into a form accessible to readers new to the tradition Drawing on his own experience the author presents a demystified and simplified version of Tantric practices that any sincere spiritual aspirant East or West can actually do
