Montecrossa, 2004 Powerhouse for God Jeff Todd Titon, 2020-07-03 The Fellowship Independent Baptist Church near Stanley Virginia was a group of fundamental Christian believers broadly representative of southern Appalachian belief and practice Jeff Todd Titon worked with this Baptist community for more than ten years in his attempt to determine the nature of language in the practice of their religion He traces specialized vocabulary and its applications through the acts of being saved praying preaching teaching and in particular singing Titon argues that religious language is performed and the context of its occurrence is crucial to our understanding and to a holistic view of not only religious practice but of folklife and ethnomusicology Titon s monumental study of The Fellowship Independent Baptist Church produced not only the first edition book but also an album and documentary film In this second edition of Powerhouse for God Titon revisits The Fellowship Independent Baptist Church nearly four decades later Brother John Sherfey the charismatic preacher steeped in Appalachian tradition has passed away and left his congregation to his son Donnie to lead While Appalachian Virginia has changed markedly over the decades the town of Stanley and the Fellowship Church have not Titon relates this rarity in his new Afterword a church founded on Biblical literalism and untouched by modern progressivism in an area of Appalachia that has seen an evolution in population industry and immigration Titon s unforgettable study of folklife musicology and Appalachian religion is available for a new generation of scholars to build upon Never Turn Down a Ride Dr. G. Preston Burns, 2023-04-06 In the tradition of Jack Kerouac s On the Road and set during the intersection of the radical 60s and the mellow 70s ride along with a recent UVA grad as he hitchhikes cross country and back with only 20 in his pocket and meets colorful characters from Kansas City to Haight Ashbury with detours including a harrowing escape from a Tijuana jail With the Vietnam War raging and the race riots waning young Preston took off to travel the country to prove to himself and the world that he could make it in a world that was still not at peace with itself The risk of being mistaken as a draft dodger or hippie and mistreated as in Easy Rider loomed in the back of his mind even though he not only did not look the part but was totally opposed to their ideas This added political risk to the usual dangers of thugs and criminals that hound anyone traveling alone and in unsavory places due to lack of funds to pay for safer accommodations This story is about a twenty one year old college graduate who had dreamed since childhood about one day seeing the USA During his years at UVA his interest was piqued after hearing stories from two older fraternity brothers They had apparently driven to California found work and returned home at the end of the summer They were rich by his standards since they had saved four times the amount of money that he could even make for the same work in Virginia After much thought he decided that hitchhiking would be the only way to accomplish the mission He looked for two years for a friend that would go with him but without success Finally he realized that if he were to go at all he would have to go alone Much soul searching went into making the decision but finally he decided that he could actually do it alone Now his whole perspective changed The trip would no longer be just about making money and sightseeing It would be about sightseeing adventure challenge and survival To ensure that it would be what he wanted he placed two restrictions upon himself The first was to accept every ride offered to him If he let the looks of the driver or the type or condition of the vehicle keep him from taking that ride he might miss the greatest adventure of his life That would completely defeat the purpose In order to guarantee that he would have to be resourceful he would limit the amount of money that he took with him to 20 As he moved about the country he faced many challenges including unsavory people lack of money and lack of safe overnight accommodations In every instance he adjusted to the situation adapted and overcame the particular problem He returned home fifty six days later with 14 having traveled ten thousand miles just in time to begin dental school He is now a changed person He firmly believes there is nothing he can t do Accounts of particular problems he faced and the solutions he rendered represent the bulk of the text This is a true account of some of the events of his life The maps within the text are copies of the original maps that he used in 1969 Negro
