The Caged Owl Gregory Orr, 2002 Gregory Orr's genius is the transformation of trauma into art Whether writing about his responsibility for a brother's death during a hunting accident drug addiction or being jailed during the Civil Rights struggle lyricism erupts in the midst of desolation and violence Orr's spare succinct poems distill myth from the domestic and display a richness of action and visual detail This long awaited collection is soulful work from a remarkable poet whose poems have been described as mystical carnal reflective and wry San Francisco Review Love Poem A black biplane crashes through the window of the luncheonette The pilot climbs down removing his leather hood He hands me my grandmother's jade ring No it is two robin's eggs and a telephone number yours from Gathering the Bones Together A father and his four sons run down a slope toward a deer they just killed the father and two sons carry rifles They laugh jostle and chatter together A gun goes off and the youngest brother falls to the ground A boy with a rifle stands beside him screaming Orr's is an immaculate style of latent violence and inhibited tenderness charged with a desperate intensity whose source is often obscure The New York Times Book Review Gregory Orr is the author of seven volumes of poetry and three books of criticism He is the editor at Virginia Quarterly Review teaches at the University of Virginia and lives with his wife and daughters in Charlottesville In 2002 along with his selected poems The Caged Owl he will also publish a memoir and a book about poetry writing Three Strange Angels Trauma and Transformation in Lyric Poetry Also Available by Gregory Orr Orpheus Eurydice A Lyric Sequence TP 12 00 1 55659 151 9 CUSA
