The Mirror of Language (Revised Edition) Marcia L. Colish, 1983-01-01 Early Christianity faced the problem of the human word versus Christ the Word Could language accurately describe spiritual reality The Mirror of Language brilliantly traces the development of one prominent theory of signs from Augustine through Anselm of Canterbury Thomas Aquinas and Dante Their shared epistemology validated human language as an authentic but limited index of preexistent reality both material and spiritual This sign theory could thereby account for the ways men receive know and transmit religious knowledge always mediated through faith Marcia L Colish demonstrates how the three theologians used different branches of the medieval trivium to express a common sign theory Augustine stressed rhetoric Anselm shifted to grammar including grammatical proofs of God's existence and Thomas Aquinas stressed dialectic Dante the one poet included in this study used the Augustinian sign theory to develop a Christian poetics that culminates in the Divine Comedy The author points out not only the commonality but also the sharp contrasts between these writers and shows the relation between their sign theories and the intellectual ferment of the times When first published in 1968 The Mirror of Language was recognized as a pathfinding study This completely revised edition incorporates the scholarship of the intervening years and reflects the refinements of the author's thought Greater prominence is given to the role of Stoicism and sharper attention is paid to some of the thinkers and movements surrounding the major thinkers treated Concerns of semiotics philosophy and literary criticism are elucidated further The original thesis still controversial is now even wider ranging and more salient to current intellectual debate Princeton's War Program Princeton University, 1929 Progress of Mediaeval and Renaissance Studies in the United States and Canada, 1924 Each number contains a List of mediaevalists and their publications and a List of doctoral dissertations Nos 6 10 include also the report of the academy Progress of Medieval Studies in the United States of America, 1924 No 6 10 include the report of the Mediaeval Academy of America Progress of Medieval Studies in the United States of America and Canada, 1929 No 6 10 include the report of the Mediaeval Academy of America Progress of Medieval and Renaissance Studies in the United States and Canada, 1928 Medieval Rhetoric and Poetic (to 1400) Charles maternal poetics Importantly the chapters combine standard literary critical methods and extensive archival research with innovative feminist maternal and psychoanalytic theorisations of mother child relationships such as those developed by Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray Jessica Benjamin Jan Campbell and Rozsika Parker These maternal thinkers emphasise the vital importance and benefit of recognising the pre Oedipal mother and maternal subjectivity contrary to traditional repressive Oedipal models of masculinity Through this interdisciplinary approach the chapters look at Eliot s changing representations and articulations of the mother mother child relationship from his very earliest writings through to the later plays Focus is given to decisive mid career works Ash Wednesday 1930 Marina 1930 Coriolan 1931 32 and The Family Reunion 1939 as well as to canonical works The Waste Land 1922 and Four Quartets 1943 Notably the study draws heavily on the wide range of Eliot materials now available including the new editions of the complete poems the complete prose and the volumes of letters which are transforming our perception of the poet and challenging critical attitudes The book also gives unprecedented attention to Charlotte Eliot s life and writings and brings her individual female experience and subjectivity to the fore Significantly it establishes Charlotte s death in 1929 as a decisive juncture marking both Eliot s New Life and the apotheosis of the feminine symbolised in Ash Wednesday Central to this proposition is Geary s new formulation for recognising and examining a maternal poetics which also compels a new concept of maternal allegory as a modern mode of literary epiphany T S Eliot and the Mother reveals the role of the mother and the dynamics of mother son ambivalence to be far more complicated enduring changeable and essential to Eliot s personal religious and poetic development than previously acknowledged Progress of Medieval Studies in the United States and Canada ,1927 Each number contains a List of medievalists and their publications and a List of doctoral dissertations Nos 6 10 include also the report of the Academy
