New Caribbean Thought A Reader:

New Caribbean Thought Brian Meeks, Folke Lindahl, 2001 The dawn of the twenty first century is an opportune time for the people of the Caribbean to take stock of the entire experience of the past forty years since the ending of direct colonialism The authors believe it is now time to chart our future by carefully learning the lessons of the recent past This interdisciplinary collection is the first to cross traditionally restrictive disciplinary barriers to address the tough questions that face the Caribbean today What went wrong with the nationalist project What if any are the realistic options for a more prosperous Caribbean What are to be the roles of race gender and class in a more global less national world Meeks and Lindahl include thought provoking articles from twenty one respected thinkers in diverse fields of study The groundbreaking articles include critiques of existing bodies of thought reformulations of general theoretical approaches policy oriented alternatives for future development and more This book is a must for statesmen academics and students of political theory social theory Caribbean studies comparative gender studies post colonial studies Marxism and Caribbean history and anyone interested

Participatory Planning in the Caribbean: Lessons from Practice Robert Potter, Jonathan Pugh, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2003 Until recently planning and development in the Caribbean have been top down centre out and expert led For a few years now though the region has bowed to the global trend and has experimented with participatory planning methods Participatory planning is heralded by much of the development community as the most appropriate alternative strategy to the traditional approaches In this volume a range of experts drawn from the Caribbean the United Kingdom and the United States review the current achievements and future prospects for genuinely participative planning in the Caribbean region at the beginning of the 21st Century Bringing together a wide range of case studies from both the insular Caribbean as well as mainland Central and South America the book examines issues such as protected area planning sustainable development councils gender and development inner city redevelopment and community empowerment

Resilience in the Pacific and the Caribbean Simon Hollis, 2020-10-26 This book critically examines the global diffusion and local reception of resilience through the implementation of Disaster Risk Reduction DRR programmes in Pacific and Caribbean island states Global efforts to strengthen local disaster resilience capacities have become a staple of international development activity in recent decades yet the successful implementation of DRR projects designed to strengthen local resilience remains elusive While there are pockets of success a gap remains between global expectations and local realities Through a critical realist study of global and local worldviews of resilience in the Pacific and Caribbean islands this book argues that the global advocacy of DRR remains inadequate because of a failure to prioritise a person orientated ethics in its conceptualization of disaster resilience This regional comparison provides a valuable lens to understand the underlying social structures that makes resilience possible and the extent to which local governments communities and persons interpret and modify their behaviour on risk when faced with the global message on resilience This book will be of much interest to students of resilience risk management development studies and area studies

Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora Aubrey W. Bonnett, Calvin B. Holder, 2009-07-16 Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora is a response to a 1990 publication that studied the persistence and resilience of black African diasporic populations in the Caribbean Latin America North America and the United Kingdom In that book the authors used the themes of persistence and resilience to interrogate the social processes and the coping repertoire of these diasporic populations This volume investigates the often overlooked African presence in Asia Researchers sought to determine how many of these diasporic populations have fared in the context of political independence globalization economic marginalization and the presence of ethnic conflict and institutional racism even with positive class formations and declining significance of race in other geographical areas Prescriptions for the continued viability of these diasporic populations are provided India and China are undergoing a global renaissance emerging as potentially significant economic political and cultural actors on the world scene Meanwhile ancestral Africa is still socially politically and economically fragmented thereby causing a new migratory push to North America and Europe

Pan-Africanism in Modern Times Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, 2016-06-15 For about one hundred years Pan Africanism as a social cultural economic political and philosophical idea thrived Towards the tail end of the twentieth century however it waned But in more recent times there has been noticeable resurgence And as we approach the second decade of the twenty first century there are indications of significant transformations vis vis the role and place of Pan Africanism and Pan Africanists Consequently this book offers a new further and better understanding of Pan Africanism not just from the traditional African and African American points of view but also from a global perspective It does so by offering an analysis of its early years in terms of the personalities ideas and conferences that shaped it it also examines many of the factors that brought about its decline and its eventual rebirth Contributing to this seminal work are scholars of different but complementary styles and intellect who deviate from the more traditional or obvious approaches For instance one of the chapters explores Pan Africanism from the geographic perspective while another examines the role and place of women in the Pan African movement There are also voices that advance the conversation from the regional and continental viewpoint hence chapters that investigate the status of Pan Africanism in Latin America in the Caribbean and Islam and Pan Africanism in the modern world Ethnonationalism and xenophobia are also part of the treatise because increasingly these injurious phenomena are reemerging in Africa s landscape and consciousness In an increasingly interdependent and interrelated world this book also suggests that Pan Africanism will undergo a metamorphosis problems and challenges will be seen and tackled from the globalization and global common perspective Pan Africanism in Modern Times goes beyond the historicity of Pan Africanism and examines the challenges concerns and constraints it faces and also examines it from an inclusive perspective to have a broader understanding of this phenomenon and its future trajectory

Digital Inequalities in the Global South Massimo Ragnedda, Anna Gladkova, 2020-06-29 This book discusses how digital inequalities today may lead to other types of inequalities in the Global South Contributions to this collection move past discussing an access problem a binary division between haves and have nots to analyse complex inequalities in the internet use benefits and opportunities of people in the Global South region Using specific case studies this book underlines how communities in the Global South are now attempting to participate in the information age despite high costs a lack of infrastructure and more barriers to entry Contributions discuss the recent changes in the Global South These changes include greater technological availability the spread of digital literacy programs and computer courses and the overall growth in engagement of people from different backgrounds ethnicities and languages in digital environments This book outlines and evaluates the role of state and public institutions in facilitating these changes and consequently bridging the digital divide Contributions to Social Ontology

Clive Lawson, John Spiro Latsis, Nuno Martins, 2013-01-11 Recent years have seen a dramatic re emergence of interest in ontology From philosophy and social sciences to artificial intelligence and computer science ontology is gaining interdisciplinary influence as a popular tool for applied research Contributions to Social Ontology focuses specifically on these developments within the social sciences The contributions reveal that this revived interest in social ontology involves far more than an unquestioning acceptance or application of the concepts and methods of academic philosophers Instead as ontology permeates so many new areas social ontology itself is evolving in new and fascinating ways This book engages with these new developments pushing it forward with cutting edge new material from leading authors in this area from Roy Bhaskar to Margaret Archer It also explicitly analyzes the relationship between the new ontological projects and the more traditional approaches This book will be of great interest to students and researchers alike across the social sciences and particularly in philosophy economics and sociology Duvalier's Ghosts Jana Evans Braziel, 2017-05-24 Urgently pursues those nameless ghosts of Haitians lost in the liminal space of the Black Atlantic New West Indian Guide Foregrounds the experiences of refugees particularly those refused asylum and detained in camps the political mobilization of the diaspora in the United States the ramifications of the policies and adjustment programmes imposed on Haiti by the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and USAID Bulletin of Latin American Research Theoretically sound and well researched Braziel has written a compelling book on the literatures of post Duvalier Haiti Millery Polyne New York University A very original study a tour de force that crisscrosses the disciplinary boundaries typically separating the social sciences and the humanities It is richly researched beautifully written and will surely attract much critical attention and praise Valerie Kaussen University of Missouri From a position of urgent political engagement this provocative book offers novel and compelling interpretations of several well known Haitian born authors particularly regarding U S intervention in their homeland Drawing on the diasporic cultural texts of several authors such as Edwidge Danticat and Dany Laferriere Jana Evans Braziel examines how writers participate in transnational movements for global social justice In their fictional works they discuss the United States many interventionist methods in Haiti including surveillance foreign aid and military assistance Through their work they reveal that the majority of Haitians do not welcome these intrusions and actively criticize U S treatment of Haitians in both countries Braziel encourages us to analyze the instability and violence of small nations like Haiti within the larger frame of international financial and military institutions and forms of imperialism She forcefully argues that by reading these works as anti imperialist much can be learned about why Haitians and Haitian exiles often have negative perceptions of the U S

Downtown Ladies Gina A. Ulysse, 2008-09-15 The Caribbean market woman is ingrained in the popular imagination as the archetype of black womanhood in countries throughout the region Challenging this stereotype and other outdated images of black women Downtown Ladies offers a more complex picture by documenting the history of independent international traders known as informal commercial importers or ICIs who travel abroad to import and export a vast array of consumer goods sold in the public markets of Kingston Jamaica Both by products of and participants in globalization ICIs operate on multiple levels and since their emergence in the 1970s have made significant contributions to the regional national and global economies Gina Ulysse carefully explores how ICIs determined to be self employed struggle with government regulation and other social tensions to negotiate their autonomy Informing this story of self fashioning with reflections on her own experience as a young Haitian anthropologist Ulysse combines the study of political economy with the study of individual and collective identity to reveal the uneven consequences of disrupting traditional class color and gender codes in individual societies and around the world

African Caribbeans Alan West-Durán, 2003-03-30 The African Diaspora left an indelible imprint on Caribbean countries and islands This reference the only broad historical and cultural survey of the black experience in the Caribbean celebrates the Afro Caribbean diversity of the countries it profiles Each of the 15 chapters introduces a country island or group of islands providing an overview from the arrival of slaves to the current situation Topics include history economy politics social stratification race relations cultural highlights religion and notable figures Readers will discover the broad range of languages political systems racial makeup historical uniqueness and cultural offerings that shape the Caribbean A chronology glossary and photos enhance the text
