Mixed-Race Identity in the American South Julia Sattler, 2021-05-04 This interdisciplinary investigation argues that since the 1990s discourses about mixed race heritage in the United States have taken the shape of a veritable literary genre here termed memoir of the search The study uses four different texts to explore this non fictional genre including Edward Ball's Slaves in the Family and Shirlee Taylor Haizlip's The Sweeter the Juice All feature a protagonist using methods from archival investigation to DNA testing to explore an intergenerational family secret photographs and family trees and the trip to the American South which is identified as the site of the secret's origin and of the family's past As a genre these texts negotiate the memory of slavery and segregation in the present In taking up central narratives of Americanness such as the American Dream and the Immigrant story as well as discourses generating the American family the texts help inscribe themselves and the mixed race heritage they address into the American mainstream In its outlook this book highlights the importance of the memoirs negotiations of the past when finding ways to remember after the last witnesses have passed away and contributes to the discussion over political justice and reparations for slavery The Other Side of Here Ross A. MacInnes, 2017-02-21 When a compassionate judge gives an angry and troubled young man the choice between going to a mysterious horse ranch in the western Rockies or going to jail the choice seems obvious But when he arrives with his parents at an old hunting lodge on Lake Sandoza they soon realize this isn't like any place they've been before Torn apart by frustration and bitterness after years of trying to control their wayward son the parents are at their wits end Under the guidance of their patient and intriguing hosts the family must open their hearts challenge their beliefs and push themselves to change in ways they never thought they could Set against a backdrop of vast and stunning landscapes The Other Side of Here shows us that even when we are in our deepest despair sometimes the kindness of complete strangers can be our salvation Living on the Other Side Lisa M. Hess, 2025-05-15 Living on the Other Side recounts and aims to redress the unspoken largely unconscious abandonment of the Feminine in ecclesial and academic settings through an economic trinity of voices a feminist with a forgiveness problem a conscious feminine theologian serving in academic and ecclesial environments unconsciously hostile to the Feminine and a preacher's wife coming to voice about the realities of congregational Christianity held redemptively in covenantal love Fruit of decades in theological education these pages

demonstrate the necessity of sacred bewilderment for deepening spiritual maturity the purposes of rage becoming holy when able to acknowledge its limitation and an unexpected freedom that arises when forgiveness finds us in faith renewed in the Body of Humanity Current and prospective students in theology and religion seasoned pastors and willing congregations will find a compelling narrative and theological sense making of one woman's life in the Spirit disrupted so to become regrounded in a renewed and renewing trinitarianism arising out of historic Christian traditions Family Configurations Eric Widmer,2010 Family Configurations develops current scholarship on families and intimate lives by demonstrating that family relationships far from being fluid and inconsequential are more structured and committed than ever By applying social network methods to uncover the relational patterns of contemporary families this book draws on recent developments in family sociology social network analysis and kinship studies to present a fascinating interdisciplinary approach to the family
