A Portrait of Canada's Parliament William McElligott, 2020-05-04 A stunning visual exploration of Canada's most recognized building accompanied by a comprehensive study of its history in a coffee table worthy volume The Centre Block the iconic parliament building that has come to be Canada's foremost representation was closed in 2018 and will remain closed for at least a decade for a complete renovation and restoration During that time hundreds of thousands of Canadians and visitors to Canada will miss the opportunity to tour the building and view its architecture and symbolic artwork With original photographs from noted architectural photographer William P McElligott historical images and thematic articles written by established subject specialists A Portrait of Canada's Parliament Un Portrait du Parlement du Canada provides a contemporary look at one of the nation's greatest symbols and documents and analyzes the context landscape heritage and structure of this unique national icon from its origins to its present and to its future ahead This gorgeous volume presented in English and French will be treasured by all those with an interest in Canada's architectural and parliamentary history

Tours Inside the Snow Globe Tonya K. Davidson, 2024-05-16 The toppling of monuments globally in the last few years has highlighted the potency of monuments as dynamic and affectively loaded participants in society In the context of Ottawa Canada's capital city monuments inspire colonial and imperial nostalgia compelling visitors to consistently re imagine Canada as a white Anglophone nation built through the labour of white men politicians soldiers and businessmen At the same time Ottawa monuments allow for dominant affective relationships to the nation to be challenged demonstrated through subtle and explicit forms of defacement and other interactions that compel us to remember colonial violence pacifism violence against women racism Organized as a series of walking tours throughout Ottawa the chapters in Tours Inside the Snow Globe demonstrate the affective capacities of monuments and highlight how these monuments have ongoing relationships with their sites the city other monuments and local deliberate national and casual communities of users The tours focus on the lives of a monument to an unnamed Indigenous scout the National War Memorial Enclave the Women's Monument and the Canadian Tribute to Human Rights Two of the tours offer analyses of the ambivalent representations of women and Indigeneity in Ottawa's statue landscape
