God Bless This Home

By Barbara D. MacAdam

If home is where the heart is, then let this heart beat strong, allowing all who enter here to feel that they belong.

May this be a place, where dreams are made, and plans are free to grow, in safety and security, as the years begin to flow.

May the sound of joyful laughter echo sweetly through each room, from the moment sunrise floods the earth, to the rising of the moon.

Then in the quiet moments of each evening may you hear, the whispers of God's angels, singing softly in your ear.

God bless this home against the raging wind & rain that falls, keeping all who dwell within it, safe & warm inside these walls.

May you never waste time wishing for more than what you need, rather look around, and see how you've been blessed by God, indeed.

For many souls have not the means to call a place their own, so share your blessings every day & thank God for this,
your HOME!
