Preventing Violence In Schools A Challenge To American Democracy:

Preventing Violence in Schools Joan N. Burstyn, Geoff Bender, Ronnie Casella, Howard W. Gordon, Domingo P. Guerra, 2001-04-01 School violence is a burning issue these days This book provides an in depth analysis of violence prevention programs and an assessment of their effectiveness using data from observations individual interviews and focus groups as well as published data from the schools It is distinguished by its focus on the cultural and structural context of school violence and violence prevention efforts Where most other researchers use quantitative measures such as surveys to assess the effectiveness of violence prevention programs the authors of this book use qualitative research and ethnography to study the environment where such programs take place Thus this work one of only a few ethnographic studies of violence prevention programs in schools links previous quantitative research on the topic and critical ethnography Preventing Violence in Schools A Challenge to American Democracy includes voices of school students accused of practicing violence who have been participants in violence prevention programs analyzes a citywide peer mediation program who benefits and who does not who is mediated and who mediates and what the implications of these findings may be examines the kinds of violence recognized in schools and the ways schools themselves may perpetuate violence and describes a violence prevention program for students at an alternative school Preventing Violence in Schools A Challenge to American Democracy is highly relevant for students in courses on urban education foundations of education education and social policy youth and the law and qualitative research and for teachers administrators and other professionals such as school psychologists and guidance counselors at the middle and high school levels

Preventing Violence in Schools Joan N. Burstyn, Geoff Bender, Ronnie Casella, Howard W. Gordon, Domingo P. Guerra, 2001-04 Examines the complex problem of school violence using qualitative ethnographic data from observations individual interviews focus groups as well as published data Analyzes violence preventions programs assesses their effectiveness Handbook of Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties Peter Clough, 2005 The book reveals itself to be both a scholarly and practical resource that will be indispensable to anyone seeking insight and direction for understanding and responding to EBD in the 21st century Professor Paul Cooper The University of Leicester

Violence Alex Alvarez, Ronet Bachman, 2008 Violence comprises a historical and contemporary discussion of the origins patterns and causes of violence in society Through the use of contemporary and historical sources this book explore a variety of individual and collective types of violent crimes It incorporates a broad interdisciplinary approach to analyzing the patterns and correlates of violence using the most up to date research and theories and presents them in a style intended to be accessible to a wide audience of readers Current Issues in School Leadership Larry W. Hughes, 2005-01-15 Current Issues in School Leadership examines controversies about and affecting school practices Focusing on two essential questions what is important to today s school leaders and what is interfering with schooling processes it includes chapters by a broad range of authors with expertise on their specific topic The text is organized in three sections Social and Political Issues

Curriculum and Learning Issues and Organization and Management Issues The goal of this text designed for school leadership educational administration and foundations of education courses is to challenge readers to think carefully and critically about each of the issues presented leading to positive action and leadership School Violence, the Media, and Criminal Justice Responses Kimberly A. McCabe, Gregory M. Martin, 2005 This book provides a foundation for the study of school violence beginning with an analysis of the shootings at Columbine and going on to discuss all forms of aggression in schools The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Communication John G. Oetzel, Stella Ting-Toomey, 2006-01-18 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Communication Integrating Theory Research and Practice is the first resource to synthesize key theories research and practices of conflict communication in a variety of contexts Editors John Oetzel and Stella Ting Toomey as well as expert researchers in the field emphasize constructive conflict management from a communication perspective which places primacy in the message as the focus of conflict research and practice Bullying in American Schools Dorothy L. Espelage, Susan M. Swearer, 2004-02-04 Much of our knowledge about bullying behaviors comes from research conducted over the past several decades in Europe Australia and Canada Until the past decade research in the United States has lagged behind our European Australian and Canadian counterparts This book seeks to fill this void by forwarding research on bullying across contexts conducted with American participants This book is an exciting compilation of research on bullying in school aged youth conducted across the United States by a representative group of researchers including developmental social counseling school and clinical psychologists As such it presents a picture of the complexity of bullying behaviors and offers suggestions for using data based decision making to intervene and reduce bullying behaviors in our nation s schools Given the complexity of bullying and victimization this book gives guidance for schools as they develop prevention and intervention programming for bullying Providing a source through which school administrators can utilize the research findings the book is divided into five parts Part I illustrates the importance of individual characteristics across bully victim subtypes Part II addresses how peer groups relate to bullying across the school years Part III explores how teachers and classrooms influence bullying and aggression during the school years Part IV implicates ecological systems in fostering and maintaining bullying in schools It also highlights the potential for these systems to work in combating bullying Part V focuses on specific aspects of prevention and intervention planning Expelling Hope Christopher G. Robbins, 2008-07-15 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Expelling Hope raises critical questions about the effects of punitive policies particularly zero tolerance and repressive social relationships on youth of color and public schooling It argues convincingly that zero tolerance is a catchword or linchpin for an array of discourses and social practices that support the criminalization of youth the militarization of public schooling and culture and the marketization of public life Politically impassioned and intellectually rigorous the book provides the framework for an alternative vision of youth and schooling one rooted in hope that calls for youth to be treated as agents of a democratic future

Research Anthology on School Shootings, Peer Victimization, and Solutions for Building Safer Educational Institutions

Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-09-10 Though decades ago school shootings were rare events today they are becoming normalized Active shooter drills have become more commonplace as pressure is placed on schools and law enforcement to prevent the next attack Yet others argue the traumatizing effects of such exercises on the students Additionally violence between students continues to remain problematic as bullying pervades children's lives both at school and at home leading to negative mental health impacts and in extreme cases suicide Establishing safer school policies promoting violence prevention programs building healthier classroom environments and providing better staff training are all vital for protecting students physically and mentally The Research Anthology on School Shootings Peer Victimization and Solutions for Building Safer Educational Institutions examines the current sources of violence within educational systems and it offers solutions on how to provide a safer space for both students and educators alike Broken into four sections the book examines the causes and impacts that peer victimization has on students and how this can lead to further violence and investigates strategies for detecting the warning signs The book provides solutions that range from policies and programs that can be established to strategies for teaching nonviolence and promoting coexistence in the classroom Highlighting a range of topics such as violence prevention school climate and bullying this publication is an ideal reference source for school administrators law enforcement teachers government and state officials school boards academicians researchers and upper level students who are intent on stopping the persisting and unfortunate problem that is school violence
