It is presented here in its first ever translation into English. The Time of Our Singing Richard Powers, 2004-01-01. The last novel where I rooted for every character and the last to make me cry. Marlon James. Elle. From the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Overstory and the Oprah's Book Club selection Bewilderment comes Richard Powers's magnificent multifaceted novel about a supremely gifted and divided family set against the backdrop of postwar America. On Easter day 1939 at Marian Anderson's epochal concert on the Washington Mall David Strom, a German Jewish migrant scientist, meets Delia Daley, a young Black Philadelphian studying to be a singer. Their mutual love of music draws them together and against all odds and their better judgment they marry. They vow to raise their children beyond time, beyond identity, steeped only in song. Jonah, Joseph, and Ruth grow up; however, during the civil rights era, coming of age in the violent 1960s and living out adulthood in the racially retrenched late century, Jonah, the eldest, whose voice could make heads of state repent, follows a life in his parents' beloved classical music. Ruth, the youngest, devotes herself to community activism and repudiates the white culture her brother represents. Joseph, the middle child, and the narrator of this generation, bridging tale, struggles to find himself and remain connected to them both. Richard Powers's The Time of Our Singing is a story of self-invention, allegiance, race, cultural ownership, the compromised power of music, and the tangled loops of time that rewrite all belonging.

Music Supervisors' Journal, 1928. New York Magazine, 1975-08-18. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

The First Hollywood Musicals Edwin M. Bradley, 2004-08-25. As Hollywood entered the sound era, it was rightly determined that the same public fascinated by the novelty of the talkie would be dazzled by the spectacle of a song and dance film. In 1929 and 1930, film musicals became the industry's most lucrative genre until the greedy studios almost killed the genre by glutting the market with too many films that looked and sounded like clones of each other. From the classy movies such as Sunnyside Up and Hallelujah to failures such as The Lottery Bride and Howdy Broadway, this filmography details 171 early Hollywood musicals. Arranged by subgenre (backstage operettas, college films, and stage-derived musical comedies), the entries include studio, release date, cast, and credits, running time, a complete song list, any recordings, spawned by the film Academy Award nominations and winners, and availability on video or laserdisc. These data are followed by a plot synopsis and an analysis of the film's place in the genre's history. Includes over 90 photographs.
