Reclaiming Genders Transsexual Grammars At The Fin De Siecle:

Reclaiming Genders Kate More, Stephen Whittle, 2020 Reclaiming Genders is an inter disciplinary work which addresses the practical issues faced in changing the world view of gender whilst forcing theory a step forward from the limitations of queer feminism and post modernism

Reclaiming Genders Kate More, Stephen Whittle, 1999-10-01 An interdisciplinary work bringing together an international group of transgender writers this text provides a collection of essays that are central to both academia and activism Based on academic and street experiences the book addresses the practical issues faced in changing the world view of gender while forcing theory a step forward from limitations of queer feminism and postmodernism In a wide ranging set of contributions it addresses our engendered places now and what we can aim for in the future It evaluates the mechanism we can use to galvanize both the micro theories of gender as a personal experience of oppression and the macro theories of gender as a site of social regulation The collection aims to take identity politics and reclaim identity for the self

The Gender of Psychology Tamara Shefer, Floretta Boonzaier, Peace Kiguwa, 2006 Psychology as a discipline has been criticised for perpetuating sexism reproducing gender inequality and neglecting marginalised perspectives

Debates in Transgender, Queer, and Feminist Theory Patricia Elliot, 2016-05-13 Transgender studies is a heterogeneous site of debate that is marked by tensions border wars and rifts both within the field and among feminist and queer theorists Intersecting the domains of women s studies sexuality gender and transgender studies Debates in Transgender Queer and Feminist Theory provides a critical analysis of key texts and theories engaging in a dialogue with prominent theorists of transgendered identity embodiment and sexual politics and intervening in various aspects of a conceptually and politically difficult terrain A central concern is the question of whether the theories and practices needed to foster and secure the lives of transsexuals and transgendered persons will be promoted or undermined a concern that raises broader social political and ethical questions surrounding assumptions about gender sexuality and sexual difference perceptions of transgendered embodiments and identities and conceptions of divergent desires goals and visions

The Routledge Companion to Media & Gender Cynthia Carter, Linda Steiner, Lisa McLaughlin, 2013-12-13 The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender offers a comprehensive examination of media and gender studies charting its histories investigating ongoing controversies and assessing future trends The 59 chapters in this volume written by leading researchers from around the world provide scholars and students with an engaging and authoritative survey of current thinking in media and gender research The Companion includes the following features With each chapter addressing a distinct concrete set of issues the volume includes research from around the world to engage readers in a broad array of global and transnational issues and intersectional perspectives Authors address a series of important questions that have consequences for current and future thinking in the field including postfeminism sexual violence masculinity media industries queer identities video games digital policy media activism sexualization docusoaps teen drama cosmetic surgery media

Islamophobia sport telenovelas news audiences pornography and social and mobile media A range of academic disciplines inform exploration of key issues around production and policymaking representation audience engagement and the place of gender in media studies The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender is an essential guide to the central ideas concepts and debates currently shaping media and gender research

Trans Narratives Ana Horvat, Orly Lael Netzer, Sarah McRae, Julie Rak, 2021-09-30 Recently trans has taken on a number of important theoretical and critical meanings inside and outside the academy As a prefix trans can attach itself to other words to express or describe movement and change as it does in the terms transnational or transmedia Trans is also an adjective when it is part of a word that signifies an identity or expression Trans has worked as an adjective to destabilize established ideas about gender as it makes new senses of what gender can mean for trans people Much of the study of life writing is about the study of identity and the possibilities for lives that stories of identity make possible In that spirit Trans Narratives trans transmedia transnational represents an opportunity for critical work about life writing by trans people to be featured as it seeks to interrogate the idea of trans in multiple registers bringing a prefix to the center of the current field of life writing studies It aims to understand through life writing and its theory what trans means when we talk about identities and bodies and to understand better what the critical terms transmedia and transnational can mean for the field of life writing The Chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies

Gender Politics Surya Monro, 2005-02-20 Is it possible to move beyond the male female gender binary system What happens to gender theory when we consider sex and gender identities as more than just male or female Crucially what are the implications of gender and sexual fluidity and multiplicity for social policy citizenship new social movements and democracy Gender Politics challenges ideas that we are all either male or female and gay or straight It explores the experiences of people who transgress these categories and the social exclusion that they face Surya Monro addresses topical debates concerning gender and looks at different ways of theorising gender pluralism She explains how gender and sexuality relate to other social characteristics such as race class and disability As well as providing a way into some of the key academic discussions in the field of gender and sexuality Gender Politics is also a tool for activists Monro analyses the way in which mainstream citizenship social policy and democracy can or cannot be changed to reflect the needs of marginalised groups She explores the social implications of equality for transgender intersex lesbian gay and bisexual people and assesses the conflicts within these communities

Out Online: Trans Self-Representation and Community Building on YouTube Tobias Raun, 2016-05-05 Trans people are increasingly stepping out of the shadow of pathologization and secretiveness to tell their life stories share information and to connect with like minded others using YouTube as a platform Out Online Trans Self Representation and Community Building on YouTube explores the digital revolution of trans video blogging addressing trans in its many meanings and configurations to examine the different ways in which the body in transformation and the vlog as a medium intersect Drawing on rich virtual ethnographic studies of trans video blogging the author sheds light on the ways in which the video blog or vlog as a multimodal medium enables trans people to tell their stories with the use of sound text music and pictures thus offering new ways to construct and archive bodily changes and to revise the story endlessly A groundbreaking study of the intersection between trans identity and technology Out Online explores the transformative and therapeutic potential of the video blog as a means by which trans vloggers can emerge and develop online using the vlog as a site for creation intervention community building and resistance As such it will appeal to social scientists and scholars of cultural and media studies with interests in gender sexuality and embodiment

Trans Activism in Canada Dan Irving, Rupert Raj, 2014-05-05 Centring the voices and experiences of trans identified people as experts on their own lives and agents of change Trans Activism in Canada opens up a dialogue between scholars and community members in an effort to improve the lives of sex and gender variant people The first of its kind this anthology brings together activists and allies to examine the various strategies and forms of resistance needed to transform oppression into opportunity for change Reflecting upon the challenges trans communities face and offering insight into achieving institutional reform the themes addressed range from poverty and isolation to health care and best practices Using personal narratives archival material and qualitative research as well as case and community based research this text demonstrates the leading role of trans and two spirit activists in generating social change By drawing on feminist anti racist and social justice frameworks the contributors approach oppression and activism as inseparable from hetero patriarchal colonialist and capitalist power relations Written for trans activists scholars and allies Trans Activism in Canada is poised to enrich transgender theorizing by focusing on concrete experiences and practical knowledge gained from the everyday lives of trans people
