Joyce A. Cascio

Recounting The Seasons Poems 1958 2005:

Recounting the Seasons John Engels, 2005 Recounting the Seasons gathers together the work of noted American poet John Engels. Engels's writing is distinguished by its astonishing range: long short, easy difficult, philosophical casual, despairing joyful, silly bawdy, heartbreaking angry affectionate, uplifting abrasive, sexy chaste, polite and bad mannered. Arranged chronologically, this book contains nearly all of the poems that Engels has published and features a section of new and previously unpublished poems.

Translating Jazz Into Poetry Erik Redling, 2017-02-20 The study develops a new theoretical approach to the relationship between two media: jazz music and writing, and demonstrates its explanatory power with the help of a rich sampling of jazz poems. Currently, the mimetic approach to intermediality, e.g., the notion that jazz poetry imitates jazz music, still dominates the field of criticism. This book challenges that interpretive approach. It demonstrates that a mimetic view of jazz poetry hinders readers from perceiving the metaphoric ways poets rendered music in writing. Drawing on and extending recent cognitive metaphor theories (Lakoff, Johnson, Turner, Fauconnier), it promotes a conceptual metaphor model that allows readers to discover the innovative ways poets translate melody, dynamics, tempo, mood, and other musical elements into literal and figurative expressions that invite readers to imagine the music in their mind's eye, i.e., their mind's ear.

The Book of Irish American Poetry Daniel Tobin, 2007 This is the first major anthology of Irish American poetry. It breaks new ground by collecting for the first time the work of over two hundred Irish American poets, as well as other American poets whose work enjoins Irish American themes. The Book of Irish American Poetry draws together the best and most representative poetry by Irish Americans and about Irish America that has been written over the past three hundred years. Daniel Tobin begins with poetry of the populist period: poets such as John Boyle O'Reilly, and moves to the work of Irish Americans who have made an indelible imprint on American poetry: Robinson Jeffers, Marianne Moore, Louise Bogan, John Berryman, Thomas McGrath, Robert Creeley, Frank O'Hara, Ted Berrigan, Galway Kinnell, and Alan Dugan, among others. The anthology concludes with distinctive poems by contemporary Irish Americans whose work is likely to stand the test of time, such as Tess Gallagher, Brendan Galvin, and Brigit Pegeen Kelly. The Book of Irish American Poetry recovers many poets who have been forgotten and places already notable figures in American poetry within the context of a distinctively Irish American tradition.

Fishing With Dad John Bryan, 2012-05-01 Fishing with Dad is a collection so full of life and energy that it's difficult to put down. For anyone who picks up this assemblage of fishing memories between fathers and their children, the adventure of each experience will only whet their appetite for more.
