Recovering Judaism The Universal Dimension Of Jewish Religion:

Recovering Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2001 The renewed perception of Judaism's influence Judaism today is too often thought to represent a religious backwater a highly particularistic religion with its own esoteric tales and traditions practices and norms First Christians then Jews themselves have succumbed to this characterization resulting in dismissal of Judaism's universal religious significance Bereft of its religious import Judaism is increasingly thought merely an ethnic designation and a quickly dissipating one at that Neusner pleads for vindication of the universal character and appeal of Judaic monotheism in the mainstream of humanity Of the three great monotheistic religions only Judaism has survived without political power military might or great numbers of adherents and has done so because its method and message aim to persuade the world of God's dominion and the marks of God's rule

The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters

Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10 The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications Here Neusner has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre Neusner then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah's and the Talmud's programs for the social order of Israel the doctrines of economics politics and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively Then come the two foci of discourse Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester England and Mayer Gruber of Ben Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California Berkeley has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis

Handbook of Rabbinic Theology Jacob Neusner, 2021-12-28 From his extensive and intensive study of the rabbinic literature Jacob Neusner shows how the rabbinic documents give expression to a very real if implicit theological system While the rabbinic literature is often seen as a collection of miscellaneous responses to questions arising from study of the Hebrew Bible and its application to contemporary life Neusner sees a system behind and embodied in the various writings He discusses the ways in which the divine thought and the human thinking that sought faithfully to interpret it actually came to expression and treats what he calls the grammar of the divine self expression in order to help us see the theological structure that it implies Then he shows how this implicit system is expressed in the rules for the life of the people that God has chosen as his own Citing passages from almost all of the mishnaic tractates Neusner shows how they fit into and give expression to the system This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

The Reader's Guide to the Talmud Jacob Neusner,2001-05-07 This systematic introduction to the Talmud of Babylonia Bavli answers basic questions of form how is this a coherent document How do we make sense of the several languages in which it is written What are the principal parts of the complex writing Turning to questions of modes of thought the account proceeds to address the intellectual character of the Bavli and in particular the character and uses of its dialectics Finally questions of substance come to the fore how does the Talmud relate to the Torah and how does tradition enter in These basic questions of rhetoric topic and logic that anyone approaching the text will raise are dealt with clearly and authoritatively

Soundings in the Religion of Jesus Bruce Chilton,Anthony Le Donne,2012 Jesus was a Jew and not a Christian That affirmation may seem obvious but here an international cast of Jewish and Christian scholars spell out its weighty and often complex consequences for contemporary Jewish Christian dialogue Soundings in the Religion of Jesus contextualizes Jesus and the writings about him that set the stage for Jewish Christian relations for the next two thousand years Of equal importance this book considers the reception celebration and too often the neglect of Jesus Jewishness in modern contexts and the impact such responses have had for Jewish Christian relations Topics explored include the ethics of scriptural translation the ideological motives of Nazi theologians and other quests for the Historical Jesus and the ways in which New Testament portraits of Jesus both help and hurt authentic Jewish Christian dialogue

The Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner,2002-01-01 Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism BOOK JACKET Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature Robert Spoo,Simon Stern,2025-01-09 The Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature surveys the intersection between two important fields of study Interdisciplinary in scope the volume showcases the many ways in which literary and legal methods and insights both converge and remain distinct Studies in the Historical Jesus Justin J. Meggitt,2023-08-29

Studies in the Historical Jesus Anarchy Miracles and Madness is a selection of key essays on the historical figure of Jesus published over the last fifteen years by Justin J Meggitt Each addresses a central question in the study of Jesus and his context from the role of myth in the creation of traditions about him and the historicity of his miracles to the problem of his politics and the reasons for his execution The collection brings fresh perspectives and new data to bear on enduring debates and demonstrates the value of history from below in making sense of the historical Jesus and the world that made him Living The Letters Michael Marmur,2025-04-11 In this work Michael Marmur employs the structure of the Hebrew alphabet to set out elements of an emerging Jewish theology presenting a case for the urgent relevance of Jewish life at a time of deepening rupture and accelerating change He presents core components of a theory and practice of contemporary Judaism The Hebrew alphabet has long beguiled and preoccupied Biblical authors and liturgical poets rationalists and mystics conservatives and radicals It has served as a locus of theological speculation an engine of creativity and a recurrent motif throughout the cycle of life from childhood instruction to graveside recitation For each letter of the Hebrew alphabet Marmur proposes a concept gleaned from theology philosophy ritual politics community and other fields Readers are invited to combine and deploy them in imagining a Judaism of tomorrow This is an open access book

Learned Ignorance James L. Heft, Reuven Firestone, Omid Safi, 2011-08 Constructive interreligious dialogue is only a recent phenomenon Until the nineteenth century most dialogue among believers was carried on as a debate aimed either to disprove the claims of the other or to convert the other to one's own tradition At the end of the nineteenth century Protestant Christian missionaries of different denominations had created such a cacophony amongst themselves in the mission fields that they decided that it would be best if they could begin to overcome their own differences instead of confusing and even scandalizing the people whom they were trying to convert By the middle of the twentieth century the horrors of the Holocaust compelled Christians especially mainline Protestants and Catholics to enter into a serious dialogue with Jews one of the consequences of which was the removal of claims by Christians to have replaced Judaism and revising text books that communicated that message to Christian believers Now at the beginning of the twenty first century many branches of Christianity not least the Catholic Church are engaged in a world wide constructive dialogue with Muslims made all the more necessary by the terrorist attacks of September 11 In these new conversations Muslim religious leaders took an important initiative when they sent their document A Common Word Between Us to all Christians in the West It is an extraordinary document for it makes a theological argument various Christians in the West including officials at the Vatican have claimed that a theological conversation with Muslims is not possible based on texts drawn from the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an that Jewish Christian and Muslim believers share the God-given obligation to love God and each other in peace and justice The Institute for Advanced Catholic Studies brought together an international group of sixteen Jewish Catholic and Muslim scholars to carry on an important theological exploration of the theme of learned ignorance
