Recruiting People of Color for Teacher Education, 1993 Proceedings of the National Association for Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, 2012-12-06 The National Association for Multicultural Education NAME held its 7th Annual Conference in 1997 with a theme of Daring to Educate for Equity and Excellence A Multicultural and Bilingual Mandate for the 21st Century The conference generated scholarship in the form of keynote speeches and conference papers and stimulating discussions among the membership The conference s southwest location of Albuquerque New Mexico provided an excellent back drop to discuss the interconnections between multicultural education and bilingual education as well as provide an opportunity for proponents of both of these important ideas to engage in useful and important discussions The essays comprised in this book capture much of the written record of the conference They convey ideas beliefs and research findings that were presented at the formal sessions at the conference Just as with NAME s previous proceedings it is expected that these proceedings will become not only a written record of the conference but a live curriculum to help pre K through college educators to prepare themselves and those they teach for the 21st century Speaking the Unpleasant Rudolfo Chávez Chávez, Rudolfo Chavez Chavez, James O'Donnell, 1998-01-01 Discusses the issue of engagement and nonengagement of students in multicultural education programs After Civil Rights John D. Skrentny, 2015-11-24 A provocative new approach to race in the workplace What role should racial difference play in the American workplace As a nation we rely on civil rights law to address this question and the monumental Civil Rights Act of 1964 seemingly answered it race must not be a factor in workplace decisions In After Civil Rights John Skrentny contends that after decades of mass immigration many employers Democratic and Republican political leaders and advocates have adopted a new strategy to manage race and work Race is now relevant not only in negative cases of discrimination but in more positive ways as well In today s workplace employers routinely practice racial realism where they view race as real as a job qualification Many believe employee racial differences and sometimes immigrant status correspond to unique abilities or evoke desirable reactions from clients or citizens They also see racial diversity as a way to increase workplace dynamism The problem is that when employers see race as useful for organizational effectiveness they are often in violation of civil rights law After Civil Rights examines this emerging strategy in a wide range of employment situations including the low skilled sector professional and white collar jobs and entertainment and media In this important book Skrentny urges us to acknowledge the racial realism already occurring and lays out a series of reforms that if enacted would bring the law and lived experience more in line yet still remain respectful of the need to protect the civil rights of all workers Teacher Education: Professionalism, social justice and teacher education David Hartley, Maurice Whitehead, 2006 Gifted Students and Inclusion Sarah Schaffer, 1996 Contains journal articles and excerpts from books published between 1993 and 1996 Educating Culturally Responsive Teachers Ana Maria Villegas, Tamara Lucas, 2002-01-01 Provides a coherent framework for preparing teachers to work with a diverse student population Recruiting Black Biology Majors into STEM Education Careers Salika A. Lawrence, Tabora A. Johnson, Chiyedza Small, 2023-12-06 This book addresses issues related to the recruitment preparation and retention of STEM teachers Focusing on recruitment specifically it explores the strategies used to introduce biology majors to the teaching profession increase their interest in teaching and support their transition into teaching Taking the Transformative and Innovative Practices in STEM Education TIPS program as a case study it draws upon a wide range of data sources to contextualize the experiences of program participants including reflections from participants and program staff pre and post surveys focus groups and annual interviews The authors present insights about their decision making and use the data to help create illustrative examples of the STEM majors of color who choose to pursue teaching and to explore why others decide not to pursue teaching It foregrounds the importance of recruiting STEM teachers of color for urban districts the role of culture and identity in the decision making process and the role played by professional development and mentoring With emphasis on recruiting STEM majors at a Predominantly Black Institution PBI the book ultimately provides strategies for increasing collaboration across departments supporting and mentoring students and addressing cultural and institutional barriers that STEM majors face when transitioning into teacher education As such it will appeal to STEM education and teacher education scholars as well as program directors deans of Schools of Education and deans of Schools of Science Breaking the Class Ceiling David Haselkorn, Elizabeth F. Fidler, 1996 This report examines a grass roots movement for teacher diversity and development paraeducator pathways into teaching The desire to recruit a more diverse pool of teachers for urban schools and critical shortage areas has spurred a renewed interest in paraprofessional career opportunity programs The 149 paraeducator to teacher programs identified in a survey by Recruiting New Teachers are described in terms of program scope and purpose a profile of participants overcoming barriers to participation program models recruiting evaluating and tracing participants program budget and administration and outlook Sources of support for paraeducator to teacher programs include foundations federal and state sponsorship and teacher unions and paraprofessional associations The study suggests that the paraeducator to teacher programs are an important influence in diversifying the teacher workforce can be an important link between schools and communities and can raise skill levels and earning power of their participants A substantial bibliography is included The appendices include profiles of nine programs study methodology presentation of data from the program survey strategies to help paraeducators surmount barriers to career advancement and workshop topics for staff ND Men Educators of Color in U.S. Public Schools and Abroad Ashley N. Woodson, Travis J. Bristol, 2023-12-11 This book reflects the diversity and possibility of critical research in education with an emphasis on the examination of the intersections of social identities for men teachers of color and the relationship between social identity and struggles for political and professional agency The authors address race and race inequality in education and provide a strong theoretical foundation for filling the empirical gap on men teachers of color by engaging in questions such as How do critical considerations of the intersection of race gender and profession inform the future of teacher education What does it mean to be men or of color in the context of the teaching profession in the U S and abroad What are the aims of ethnoracial diversity in the field of education The research included in this edited volume explores topics including but not limited to men teachers of color and their perceived pathways to the profession their perceptions of and partnerships with colleagues of other genders their sexual and gendered identities and performances and how they embrace reject or negotiate the expectations of performing as a role model in classrooms Moreover the chapters provide explicit implications for teachers teacher educators university and PK 12 administrators education activists and or education policymakers In sum this volume charts a new landscape in education research for all men teachers of color The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Race Ethnicity and Education
