

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of an industrial facility, likely an oil refinery or chemical plant. In the center, a tall smokestack is emitting a large, billowing plume of dark smoke that rises into the sky. Within the lower part of this smoke plume, there is a bright, multi-colored fire or flare, showing hues of orange, yellow, and red. The sky is a clear, pale blue. In the foreground, the silhouettes of various industrial structures, including other smokestacks and distillation columns, are visible against the horizon. The overall tone is somber and industrial, emphasizing the environmental impact of fossil fuel processing.
