freak show in America chronicles the rise and fall of the industry as attitudes about disability evolved From 1840 until 1940 hundreds of freak shows crisscrossed the United States from the smallest towns to the largest cities exhibiting their casts of dwarfs giants Siamese twins bearded ladies savages snake charmers fire eaters and other oddities By today s standards such displays would be considered cruel and exploitative the pornography of disability Yet for one hundred years the freak show was widely accepted as one of America s most popular forms of entertainment Robert Bogdan s fascinating social history brings to life the world of the freak show and explores the culture that nurtured and later abandoned it In uncovering this neglected chapter of show business he describes in detail the flimflam artistry behind the shows the promoters and the audiences and the gradual evolution of public opinion from awe to embarrassment Freaks were not born Bogdan reveals they were manufactured by the amusement world usually with the active participation of the freaks themselves Many of the human curiosities found fame and fortune until the ascent of professional medicine transformed them from marvels into pathological specimens The Wonders John Woolf,2019-11-05 On March 23 1844 General Tom Thumb just 25 inches tall entered the Picture Gallery at Buckingham Palace and bowed low to Queen Victoria On both sides of the Atlantic this meeting marked a tipping point in the nineteenth century and the age of the freak was born Bewitching all levels of society it was a world of curiosities and astonishing spectacle of dwarfs giants bearded ladies Siamese twins and swaggering showmen But the real stories human dramas that so often eclipsed the fantasy presented on the stage of the performing men women and children have been forgotten or marginalized in the histories of the very people who exploited them In this richly evocative account John Woolf uses a wealth of recently discovered material to bring to life the sometimes tragic sometimes triumphant always extraordinary stories of people who used their dis abilities and difference to become some of the first international celebrities Through their lives we discover afresh some of the great transformations of the age the birth of show business of celebrity of advertising and of alternative facts while also exploring the tensions between the power of fame the impact of exploitation and our fascination with otherness Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in
