The Rise of Islam Christian Mogler, 2009-10-14 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2009 in the subject Theology Historic Theology Ecclesiastical History grade A Prairie Bible Institute course History of the Growth of Christianity language English abstract Muhammad ibn Abdullah the last prophet and founder of Islam is one of the most influential people who walked on this earth By the time of the prophet's death at the age of sixty two he had brought into existence a dynamic movement that would carry Islam through the centuries and across the continents birthing empires transforming the sciences and challenging economic cultural and political systems Considering the religion of Islam one may wonder who this Muhammad the last prophet was and how his instructions were shaped by the cultural economical social and religious environment in which he lived The other questions that may rise are how this small movement could become within centuries the dominant religion of the Mediterranean and why Christianity was not able to stop it This essay will propose that it was due to the lack of unity among Christians on the one hand and on the other hand to Muhammad's attractive instructions about brotherhood and solidarity among his followers fervour faith simplicity of Islam moral values and the use of the sword that Islam augmented so rapidly and displaced Christianity
