Rise Of The Indo Afghan Empire C1710 178:

The Rise of the Indo-Afghan Empire, c. 1710-1780 Jos J.L. Gommans, 2023-11-27 The Rise of The Indo Afghan Empire c 1710 1780 deals with the magnificent world of Afghan nomads horse dealers and mercenaries bridging the frontiers between the old metropolitan centres of India Iran and Central Asia During the eighteenth century they succeeded in establishing a vigorous new system of Indo Afghan states In Central Asia the Afghans created an imperial tradition on the basis of long standing Perso Islamic ideals In India along the caravan routes with Turkistan and Tibet they carved out thriving principalities in association with military service and the breeding and trade in war horses By fully incorporating this Afghan ascendancy into the fabric of Islamic and world history the author challenges the widely held notion of a gloomy Afghan past

War and the World Jeremy Black, 2008-10-01 In this brilliant history of warfare Jeremy Black is the first to approach the entire modern era from a comprehensive global perspective He provides a wide ranging account of the nature purpose and experience of war over the past half millennium and argues the importance of viewing the rise of European power within a wider international context Investigating both land and sea warfare Black examines weaponry tactics strategy and resources as well as the political social and cultural impact of conflict The book takes issue with established interpretations not least those that emphasize technology and challenges the view that European military and naval forces were dominant throughout the period European mastery at sea did not always translate into equivalent success on land says Black and many non European military systems the Ottomans in their expansionist years Babur and the Mughals in sixteenth century India and the Manchu in China in the following century for example were formidable in their own right The author contends that in the nineteenth century the focal period of Europe s military revolution the international military balance shifted decisively Black shows how military developments combined with political economic and ideological shifts influenced the nature and success of European imperialism Linking debates on early modern history with those of more recent centuries he offers a fundamental reexamination of the role of war in the progress of nations

Bondage Alessandro Stanziani, 2015-11 For the first time this book provides the global history of labor in Central Eurasia Russia Europe and the Indian Ocean between the sixteenth and the twentieth centuries It contests common views on free and unfree labor and compares the latter to many Western countries where wage conditions resembled those of domestic servants This gave rise to extreme forms of dependency in the colonies not only under slavery but also afterwards in form of indentured labor in the Indian Ocean and obligatory labor in Africa Stanziani shows that unfree labor and forms of economic coercion were perfectly compatible with market development and capitalism proven by the consistent economic growth that took place all over Eurasia between the seventeenth and the nineteenth centuries This growth was labor intensive commercial expansion transformations in agriculture and the first industrial revolution required more labor not less Finally Stanziani demonstrates that this world did not collapse after the French Revolution or the British industrial revolution as is commonly assumed but instead between

1870 and 1914 with the second industrial revolution and the rise of the welfare state

The Arabian Seas: The Indian Ocean World of the Seventeenth Century Rene J. Barendse, 2016-07-08 The Arabian Seas is a magisterial work on the world political economy trade war power that explores the intersect of the worlds of Islam including South and Southeast Asia the Middle East and East Africa and the European world economy particularly the seafaring Portuguese Dutch and British on the eve of the modern world system It is likely to become a classic in its field and one of the pillars of the emerging literature in recent years that has begun to recast our understanding of the early modern history of Asia and the world economy underlining the early and long predominance of Asia in the world economy and showing the long and deep ties between European and Asian economic and military interactions This work centrally addresses current debates on the nature of the early modern world system and the relative strengths of East and West There are no competitors for this book but it may be compared with Braudel's masterful studies of the Mediterranean in the sense that it does for the Arabian Seas Indian Ocean World spanning South Asia the Middle East and the East African Coast and beyond what Braudel did for the Mediterranean

A History of the Muslim World to 1750 Vernon O. Egger, 2017-11-08 A History of the Muslim World to 1750 traces the development of Islamic civilization from the career of the Prophet Muhammad to the mid eighteenth century Encompassing a wide range of significant events within the period its coverage includes the creation of the Dar al Islam the territory ruled by Muslims the fragmentation of society into various religious and political groups including the Shi'ites and Sunnis the series of catastrophes in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries that threatened to destroy the civilization and the rise of the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires Including the latest research from the last ten years this second edition has been updated and expanded to cover the fifteenth to eighteenth centuries Fully refreshed and containing over sixty images to highlight the key visual aspects this book offers students a balanced coverage of the Muslim world from the Iberian Peninsula to South Asia and detailed accounts of all cultures The use of maps primary sources timelines and a glossary further illuminates the fascinating yet complex world of the pre modern Middle East Covering art architecture religious institutions theological beliefs popular religious practice political institutions cuisine and much more A History of the Muslim World to 1750 is the perfect introduction for all students of the history of Islamic civilization and the Middle East

A History of the Muslim World since 1260 Vernon Egger, 2016-09-16 The history of the predominantly Muslim world is examined within the context of world history It examines political economic and broad cultural developments as well as specifically religious ones The themes of the book are tradition and adaptation it examines the tensions between the desire of Muslims to maintain continuity with their legacy and their recognition of the need to adapt to changing conditions

Military Strategy Jeremy Black, 2020-04-07 A global account of military strategy which examines the practices rather than the theories of the most significant military figures of the past 400 years Strategy has existed as long as there has been organised conflict In this new account Jeremy Black explores the ever changing relationship between purpose force implementation and effectiveness in military strategy and its dramatic impact on the development of the global power system Taking a total view of strategy Black looks at leading powers notably the United States China Britain and Russia in the wider context of their competition and their domestic and international strengths Ranging from France s ancien r gime and Britain s empire building to present day conflicts in the Middle East Black devotes particular attention to the strategic practice and decisions of the Kangxi Emperor Clausewitz Napoleon and Hitler Index of Islamic Literature ,1995 The Muslim World Book Review ,1994 The Rise of the Indo-Afghan Empire, C.1710-1780 Jos J.
