Rise And Fall Of Marvellous Melbourne:

Rise And Fall Of Marvellous Melbourne Graeme Davison, 2014-02-26 In the 1880s a generation after the gold rushes Melbourne rose to become Australia's most populous modern and self-consciously metropolitan city. Its offices and warehouses leapt skyward; its suburbs sprawled and the tentacles of its commerce reached across the continent. In the 1890s the housing boom burst, depression struck and Melbourne's population and influence declined. In this classic work of Australian social history Graeme Davison explores the economic, political, social and cultural consequences of the meteoric rise and calamitous fall of the city dubbed Marvellous Melbourne. Twenty-six years after this much acclaimed book was first published, Davison offers a reappraisal of his original ideas in a new preface and epilogue. The book has also been enhanced by a series of picture essays exploring the response of contemporary artists and photographers to the transformation of city and suburbs.

The Rise and Fall of Marvellous Melbourne Graeme John Davison, 1989 The Rise and Fall of "Marvellous Melbourne", 1880-1895 Graeme Davison, 1969 The Victorian Premiers, 1856-2006 Paul Strangio, Brian J. Costar, 2006 In the century and a half since Victoria was granted responsible government in 1856, 44 premiers have presided over the state and colony from Honest William Haines to Steve Bracks. Here is their story. For the first time, this book brings together a comprehensive collection of biographical and political portraits of the Victorian premiers, written by leading Australian historians and political scientists. The result is a compelling journey through a turbulent, occasionally anarchic political landscape. A cast of fascinating characters is brought to life: the mercurial Graham Berry, who in the 1870s threatened broken heads and flaming houses in his heroic struggle to tame the colony's intractably conservative upper house; the roguish Tommy Bent, the turn-of-the-century can-do premier whose development enthusiasms were unhindered by probities of office; the bohemian Tom Hollway, who conducted Victoria's affairs from his suite in the Windsor Hotel; the accidental leader Henry Bolte, who became Victoria's longest-serving premier; and the larrikin metropolitan Jeff Kennett, who turned the state into a neo-liberal laboratory in the 1990s. A tale of premiers, the book is also a narrative of politics in a state that has vied with New South Wales as Australia's most prosperous and powerful. It recounts many extraordinary episodes: the precocious development of democracy in a fledgling colony turned upside down by gold immigrants; the titanic bicameral struggles of the 1860s and 1870s that brought Victoria to the brink of insurrection; the bank crashes of the 1890s; the police strike of 1923; the great Labor split of the 1950s; the hanging of Ronald Ryan in 1967; the social democratic adventurism of the Labor decade of the 1980s brought to a shuddering halt by another era of financial collapses; and the neo-liberal experimentalism of the Kennett government. This carefully researched and engagingly written book will leave the reader in no doubt that politics in the Garden State has seldom been sedate and its premiers rarely predictable.

The Politics of Work Raelene Frances, 1993-11-23 This book focuses on the workplace in Australia to look at how and why the nature of work changed during the period from the late nineteenth century to World War II.

Dark Tourism and Place Identity

Leanne White, Elspeth Frew, 2013 Dark Tourism including visitation to places such as murder sites battlefields and cemeteries is a growing phenomenon as well as an emergent area of scholarly interest Despite this interest the intersecting domains of dark tourism and place identity have been largely overlooked in the academic literature and this book aims to fill this void The three main themes of Visitor Motivation Destination Management and Place Interpretation are addressed in this book from both a demand and supply perspective by examining a variety of case studies from around the world This edited volume takes the dark tourism discussion to another level by reinforcing the critical intersecting domains of dark tourism and place identity and in particular highlighting the importance of understanding this connection for visitors and destination managers Written by leading academics in the area this stimulating volume of 19 chapters will be valuable reading for postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students in a range of discipline areas researchers and academics interested in dark tourism and other interested stakeholders including those in the tourism industry government bodies and community groups

Mr Felton's Bequests John Poynter, 2008-01-01 Alfred Felton a bachelor of definite opinions and benignly eccentric habits was one of the remarkable group of Melbourne merchants who dominated the economy of the Australian colonies in the decades after the gold rush In 1904 he left his substantial fortune in trust the income to be spent by a committee of his friends half on charities especially for women and children and half on works of art for the National Gallery of Victoria works calculated to raise and improve public taste The Gallery suddenly gained acquisition funds greater than those of London's National and Tate galleries combined and between 1904 and 2004 more than 15 000 items were purchased for it by the Felton Bequest Although the last quarter of the twentieth century saw a dramatic and exciting expansion of Australian art museums Patrick McCaughey writes in the
