Skinner, 2010-12-23 In this companion international scholars provide a comprehensive overview that reflects the most recent trends in Catullan studies Explores the work of Catullus one of the best Roman lyric poets Provides discussions about production genre style and reception as well as interpretive essays on key poems and groups of poems Grounds Catullus in the socio-historical world around him Chapters challenge received wisdom present original readings and suggest new interpretations of biographical evidence Catullus and the Poetics of Roman Manhood David Wray, 2001-09-06 This book applies comparative cultural and literary models to a reading of Catullus poems as social performances of a poetics of manhood a competitively often outrageously self-allusive bid for recognition and admiration Earlier readings of Catullus based on Romantic and Modernist notions of lyric poetry have tended to focus on the relationship with Lesbia and to ignore the majority of the shorter poems which are instead directed at other men Professor Wray approaches these poems in the light of more recent models for understanding male social interaction in the premodern Mediterranean placing them in their specifically Roman historical context while bringing out their strikingly postmodern qualities The result is an alternative way of reading the fiercely aggressive and delicately refined agonism performed in Catullus' shorter poems All Latin and Greek quoted is supplied with an English translation Explorations in Latin Literature: Volume 2, Elegy, Lyric and Other Topics Denis Feeney, 2021-08-19 Denis Feeney is one of the most distinguished scholars of Latin literature and Roman culture in the world of the last half century These two volumes conveniently collect and present afresh all his major papers covering a wide range of topics and interests Ancient epic is a major focus followed by Latin lyric historiography and elegy Ancient literary criticism and the technology of the book are recurrent themes Many papers address the problems of literary responses to religion and ritual with an interdisciplinary methodology drawing on comparative anthropology and religion The transition from Republic to Empire and the emergence of the Augustan principate form the background to the majority of the papers and the question of how literary texts are to be read in historical context is addressed throughout All quotations from ancient and modern languages have now been translated and Stephen Hinds has contributed a foreword
