channels we find people pre occupied with eating cooking and competing with chefs Eating and food in today's media have become a form of entertainment and art A survey of literary history and culture shows to what extent eating used to be closely related to all areas of human life to religion eroticism and even to death In this volume early modern ideas of feasting banqueting and culinary pleasures are juxtaposed with post 18th and 19th century concepts in which the intake of food is increasingly subjected to moral theological and economic reservations In a wide range of essays various images rhetorics and poetics of plenty are not only contrasted with the horrors of gluttony they are also seen in the context of modern phenomena such as the anorexic body or the gourmandizing b te humaine It is this vexing binary approach to eating and food which this volume traces within a wide chronological framework and which is at the core not only of literature art and film but also of a flourishing popular culture National Union Catalog ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases The Captain's Table Richard Gordon,2014-07-01 William Ebbs is made Captain of a luxury liner and quickly encounters the first night dinner the dangers of finding a woman in his room the embarrassing presence of the company s largest shareholder and a passenger overboard as well as blackmail This is a tale of nautical misadventure and mayhem packed with rib tickling humour
