The vast majority of period ship models are built from kits usually primarily of wood with some ready made fittings Although these commercial offerings have improved significantly in recent years all of them can be enhanced in accuracy or detail by an experienced modelmaker This book by an expert ship modeller distils lessons gleaned from a lifetime practising the hobby to the highest standards setting out methods of improving basic kits and gradually developing the skills and confidence to tackle the construction of a model from scratch Using a variety of kits as the starting point each chapter demonstrates a technique that can be readily improved or a feature that can be replaced to the advantage of the finished model Topics include hull planking representing copper sheathing many aspects of more accurate masting and rigging and how to replace kit parts and fittings from scratch Ultimately the impact of a period model depends on its accuracy and the book also provides guidance on plans and references where to find them and how they are best used The plank on frame model sometimes with exposed frames in the Navy Board style has always been considered the crowning achievement of period ship modeling and this book concludes with coverage of the very latest kits that put fully framed models within the reach of ordinary mortals Offering advice expertise and inspiration Ship Models from the Age of Sail has something for anyone interested in building a period ship model whatever their level of skill Sixty Years of Airfix Models Jeremy

Brook,2015-06-30 The best known and most important manufacturer of plastic model kits in the UK Airfix has been at the forefront of the industry since 1955 when the first Airfix aircraft kit appeared in UK branches of Woolworth s The kits were made to a constant scale and covered a wide variety of subjects from aircraft to birds and from tanks to dinosaurs In 1981 the famous London based company closed down and only the kits survived intact For the next twenty five years Airfix was run by Palitoy and later Humbrol but suffered from a lack of investment In 2006 Hornby Hobbies Ltd the train and Scalextric manufacturer bought the ailing company and transformed it Money and resources were ploughed into the range and today Airfix releases around twenty new kits per year designed to an incredibly high standard The old kits of the 1950s and 1960s are gradually being replaced by new state of the art tooling all bearing that most prestigious name Airfix Published to coincide with the sixtieth anniversary of the first Airfix aircraft kit Sixty Years of Airfix Models tells the full story year by year of the company and its products Illustrated throughout with colour photographs of kits box art and completed models
