Remaking Women Lila Abu-Lughod,1998-07-01 Contrary to popular perceptions newly veiled women across the Middle East are just as much products and symbols of modernity as the upper and middle class women who courageously took off the veil almost a century ago To make this point these essays focus on the woman question in the Middle East most particularly in Egypt and Iran especially at the turn of the century when gender became a highly charged nationalist issue tied up in complex ways with the West The last two decades have witnessed an extraordinary burst of energy and richness in Middle East women s studies and the contributors to this volume exemplify the vitality of this new thinking They take up issues of concern to historians and social thinkers working on the postcolonial world The essays challenge the assumptions of other major works on women and feminism in the Middle East by questioning among other things the familiar dichotomy in which women s domesticity is associated with tradition and modernity with their entry into the public sphere Indeed Remaking Women is a radical challenge to any easy equation of modernity with progress emancipation and the empowerment of women The contributors are Lila Abu Lughod Marilyn Booth Deniz Kandiyoti Khaled Fahmy Mervat Hatem Afsaneh Najmabadi Omnia Shakry and Zohreh T Sullivan The book is introduced by the editor with a piece called Feminist Longings and Postcolonial Conditions which masterfully interfaces the critical studies of feminism and modernism with scholarship on South Asia and the Middle East Egypt Past and Present William Henry Davenport Adams,1894 The
