

The background is a complex abstract composition. It features a large, stylized face-like form on the right side, constructed from various geometric shapes and colors. The face has large, dark, circular eyes and a curved, open mouth. The entire composition is made up of overlapping rectangles, triangles, and other polygons in shades of red, orange, yellow, black, and white. The overall effect is one of dynamic, fragmented energy.

Sample Book Insights

- 1 The use of dream analysis in psychotherapy is still a debated issue Many practitioners find it indispensable in the treatment of neuroses while others dispute the value of dream analysis and believe that dreams are a negligible by product of the psyche
- 2 Dreams can be used to reveal the unconscious causes of a neurosis The Freudian answer is that dreams often reveal the unconscious contents that are causal factors in a neurosis
- 3 The dream is an accurate representation of the patient's subjective state which the conscious mind denies exists or recognizes only grudgingly The patient's conscious ego could see no reason why he should not go steadily forward but the dream showed us how things really stood
- 4 There are dreams that explain the causes of a neurosis and there are others that do not The point is that there are neuroses whose origins we discover only at the end of an analysis and there are others whose origins we do not need to discover
